STRATEGIC LEVEL PRAYER JOURNAL
Your Daily Devotional with God's (Kairos) Timing
Attached to It!
SEPTEMBER, 2021

This material is produced by Fullstature Missions International (FMI) free of charge in the last 9 years and it is supported by freewill offerings. This publication was born by revelation that TIME is a spiritual GATE -a portal that gives access. It is about God's "kairos" moments inserted into creation. We must give God first place in the day, in the month and in the year. There is something called the "Head of the Year" among the Jews. Time can also be manipulated to hurt many people without their knowledge - this is very serious. Like missing the time to marry or missing a strategic appointment; or missing an interview etc. We want to share the knowledge of God in such a functional way to cure the failures we have experienced in the past and ask God to restore years that the locust has devoured. Many Christians generally are careless with time.

This strategic level prayer journal is to facilitate progress in your spiritual life. Please acknowledge quotations from the journal as we will also do in acknowledging our sources. This journal is a way for us in FMI to give back to you.

A WORD FROM
I. D. LAWON

SHOW THE HOUSE TO THE HOUSE

God put it in the hearts of spiritual leaders and kings of the day to rebuild His house, which had been destroyed before His people were taken into exile in Babylon because they were rebellious. They had been permitted to return to Jerusalem. "Everyone whose heart God had moved prepared to go up and build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem." Ezra 1:5 God had restored them and told them that they could rebuild because He was with them and that He would make them strong enough to accomplish it. His Presence always provides us with strength and courage and destroys all fear. "I am with you. BE STRONG and do the work for I am with you... My Spirit is strong among you, DO NOT FEAR." Haggai 2:4,5. God actually speaks individually by name to each of the leaders here and says "Be strong" just as He had said to David when he encouraged Solomon to build the temple. The Lord said these words to Joshua when Moses died and assured him of his strength and courage by saying, "Be strong and courageous, do not be terrified and do not be discouraged for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Josh 1:6-9,18

In Ezekiel 43:7-12-Eze 43:7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. {and the...: or, for there was but a wall between me and them}v9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them forever. In verse 10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house *of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. {pattern: or, sum, or, number}*¹¹ And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

God does here, in effect, renew his covenant with his people Israel, upon his retaking possession of the house, and Ezekiel negotiates the matter, as Moses formerly. This would be of great use to the captives at their return both for direction and encouragement; but it looks further, to those that are blessed with the privileges of the gospel temple, that they may understand how they are before him on their good behaviour.

GOD-THE GREAT REMINDER

I. God, by the prophet, puts them in mind of their former provocations, for which they had long lain under the tokens of his displeasure. This conviction is spoken to them to make way for the comforts designed them. Though God gives and upbraids not, it becomes us, when he forgives, to upbraid ourselves with our unworthy conduct towards him. Let them now remember therefore, That they had formerly defiled God's holy name, had profaned and abused all those sacred things by which he had made himself known among them, Eze 43:7. They and their kings had brought contempt on the religion they professed, and their relation to God, by their spiritual whoredom, their idolatry, and by worshipping images, which they called their kings (for so Moloch signifies) or lords (for so Baal signifies), but which were really the carcasses of kings, not only lifeless and useless, but loathsome and abominable as dead carcasses, in their high places, set up in honour of them. They had defiled God's name by their abominations. And what were they? It was in setting their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, that is, adding their own inventions to God's institutions, and urging all to a compliance with them, as if they had been of equal authority and efficacy, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (Isa 29:13); or, rather, setting up altars to their idols even in the courts of the temple, than which a more impudent affront could not be put upon the divine Majesty. Thus they set up a separation wall between him and them, which stopped the current of his favour to them and spoiled the acceptableness of their services to him. See what an indignity sinners do to God, setting up their walls in opposition to his, and thrusting him out from what is his right; and see what injury they do to themselves, for the nearer any come to God with their sins the further they set him at a distance from them. Some give this sense of it: Though their houses joined close to God's house, their posts and thresholds to his, so that they were in a manner his next neighbours, there was but a wall between me and them.

II. CONTROVERSY WITH GOD RESOLVED with THE PATTERN OF THE HOUSE

That for this God had had a controversy with them in their late troubles. They could not condemn him, for he had but brought upon them the desert of their sins: Wherefore I have consumed them in my anger. Those that pollute God's holy name fall under his just displeasure. "Now let them put away their whoredom; now that they have smarted so severely for it, and now that God is returning in mercy to them and setting up his sanctuary again in the midst of them, now let them cast away their idols and have no more to do with them, that they may not again forfeit the privileges which they have been taught to know the worth of by the want of them. Let them put away their idols, those loathsome carcasses of their kings, far from me, from being a provocation to me." This was seasonable counsel now that the prophet had the model or pattern of the temple to set before them; for,

i) If they see that pattern, they will surely be ashamed of their sins (Eze 43:10): when they see what mercy God has in store for them, notwithstanding their utter unworthiness of it, they will be ashamed to think of their disingenuous conduct towards him. Note, The goodness of God to us should lead us to repentance, especially to a penitential shame. Let them measure the pattern themselves, and see how much it exceeds the former pattern, and guess by that what great things God has in store for them; and surely it will put them out of countenance to think what the desert of their sins was. And then, . "Show them the form of the house; let them see what a stately structure it will be; and withal show them the ordinances and laws of it."

- ii) With the foresights of our comforts, it is fit that we should get the knowledge of our assigned tasks; with the privileges of God's house we must acquaint ourselves with the rules of it. Show them God's ordinances, that the church may keep them and do them. Therefore, we are made to know our assigned tasks, that we may do it, and be blessed in our deed.

The whole church has the privilege of the holy of holies, that of a near access to God where is the presence of His glory. All believers have now, under the gospel, boldness to enter into the holiest (Heb 10:19), with this advantage, that whereas the high priest entered in the virtue of the blood of bulls and goats, we enter in the virtue of the blood of Jesus, and, wherever we are, we have through him access to the Father. This is the time to build the house of your future. The whole church shall be under a mighty obligation to press towards the perfection of holiness, as he who has called us is holy. All must now be most holy. Holiness becomes God's house for ever, and in gospel-times more than ever. Behold this is the law of the house; let none expect the protection of it that will not submit to this law.

Pastor Turns Former Strip Club into a Church: Everything 'Is Possible with God'

Michael Foust | ChristianHeadlines.com Contributor | Wednesday,
July 28, 2021

A building that once housed a strip club is now home to the newest Baptist church in Anchorage, Alaska, thanks to a pastor who sensed a calling to the “Last Frontier” and a realtor who had a goal of seeing the structure transformed.

Open Door Baptist Church opened its doors last October in the same building that formerly was home to Fantasies, a strip club that came under legal troubles due to unpaid wages and controversy over its liquor license, according to the Anchorage Daily News. The building's owner wanted to sell, and realtor Mike Gailey had a unique idea: turn the property into a church.

“It was kind of a redemption story,” Gailey told the Anchorage Daily News. “And I knew churches, Christians, they love that story.” At first, Gailey had trouble finding a buyer. But then he began working with a property developer, Linda Dunegan, who shared his goal. She agreed to purchase the building. For Dunegan, the idea was personal: Her mother once worked as a stripper in Anchorage. Dunegan, a Christian, wanted to see the strip club – with its poles and catwalk – transformed into a congregation. She had grown up with shame, knowing how her mother earned money. “This church came about because I prayed for five years,” Dunegan told the Associated Press.

Open Door Baptist, a church plant, launched last year under the guidance of Pastor Kenny Menendez, who had lived in Oregon and worked in the aerospace industry but sensed a calling into the ministry.

Menendez moved his wife and their three children to Anchorage. It is a fast change of life, but you know, the things that are impossible for man are possible with God,” he told the Daily News. “And the Bible also says that without faith, it's impossible to please Him. So we took that leap of faith, so to speak.”

The congregation, Menendez told the Associated Press, is a beacon for Christ. “I would say God is pleased to have a change, a transformation in the building, a place that really ultimately points more people towards Him instead of away,” he said.

Historic Delegation of Iranians Bring Vision of Peace to Israel

Chris Mitchell : Aug 5, 2021

"As we heard on the streets of Iran, people were shouting against the Iranian government, 'Israel is not our enemy. America is not our enemy. You are'—referring to the Iranian regime—'our enemy.' People in Iran realize who is their enemy and they are trying to do their best to get rid of the Iranian regime." -Dr. Amir Hamidi

(Jerusalem, Israel)—[\[CBN News\]](#)

For decades, the Islamic Republic of Iran has committed great time and resources to the destruction of Israel. Over the years, cracks in support of the Islamic regime continue to grow. That helped lead to a historic visit to Israel this week by a group of Iranian ex-patriots. (Screengrab image: via CBN News)

The group's trip came at a tumultuous time for Iran. Demonstrators in the country's southwest are protesting the government's decision to limit their water supply. Several people have been killed and more protests have spread throughout the country calling for regime change.

"As we heard on the streets of Iran, people were shouting against the Iranian government, 'Israel is not our enemy. America is not our enemy. You are'—referring to the Iranian regime—'our enemy.' People in Iran realize who is their enemy and they are trying to do their best to get rid of the Iranian regime," Dr. Amir Hamidi, a member of the delegation, told CBN News.

While these protests continue inside the country, Iranians are showing support to Israel for the first time. "They want to mark history," said Ellie Cohanim, Senior Fellow at the Center for Security Policy. The group came with the Institute for Voices of Liberty, which is dedicated to encouraging democracy in Iran. Cohanim's family fled the republic when she was five years old.

"They are here to tell the people of Israel that they support them, and they reject the Iranians regime's anti-Semitism and genocidal desire to wipe Israel off the face of the earth," said Cohanim.

In 1979, the revolution led by Ayatollah Khomeini turned Iran from a pro-Western power to a country dedicated to destroying Israel and spreading its Islamic beliefs worldwide. The Iranians on this delegation call the past 42 years an aberration in Iran's long history.

"Unfortunately, this regime is at war with Iranian history, culture, civilization and, most importantly, the Iranian values of tolerance and acceptance," said Dr. Ben Tabatabaei, an international business and economist.

"We're here to make it very clear to the people of Israel that the Iranian people stand with the people of Israel and that we condemn the regime in Iran, which is the occupying force," he added.

For the past year, the world has heard about the Abraham Accords, historic peace deals Israel has signed with its Arab neighbors. One of the goals of this delegation is to let people know about the so-called Cyrus Accords. "Cyrus Accords, a peace deal between Israel and a future free democratic Iran is possible as well," said Len Khodorkovsky, a former senior advisor to the US special representative for Iran. These accords are named after the Persian king, who allowed the Jews to rebuild the Second Temple in Jerusalem.

Khodorkovsky says this event led the Iranian people to believe "that for 2500 years, there were warm relations between the people of Israel and the people of Iran." Cohanim says her story is a "prime example" of warm relations between Iran and the Jewish people. The Iranian Jews, we were one of the most ancient Jewish communities in the world. We lived side by side with our neighbors for 2500 years. I am Iranian culturally. My heart is still with my brothers and sisters in the country. And so, this Iranian regime that came in in 1979, they are a complete aberration. They preach hatred but the people are rejecting it," said Cohanim. (Screengrab image: via CBN News)

Ahmad Batbei, an Iranian activist, served two years in an Iranian prison as a political prisoner. He, too, is sending a message of love to Israel. "The main message is we are not your enemy. We love you. We can necessarily not be friends. We can be brothers. We have a lot of cultural values that we can make up a good Middle East with these values," he said.

Although the mission traveled throughout the country, they felt it significant as Iranians to visit Jerusalem, the city a once-great Persian ruler helped rebuild. "I wish you could have seen the awe that the various delegates saw when they walked in the City of David, when they heard the history that stems from Cyrus the Great through various millennia and how much the two people have in common," said Khodorkovsky.

"I think it just reinforced the reason why they came here. And we hope that this is not a one-off, that this is a beginning of a long-term process, which inevitably ends up in peace and prosperity for both people right after they sign the Cyrus Accords, of course," he added. In the meantime, their hearts remain back home. "Lots of my countrymen inside Iran, which I talk to them, I read them messages and so on, they are hoping. They are desperate and they're waiting every minute, every for the dismantlement of the Iranian Islamic Republic," said Hamidi.

A PROPHETIC WORD

From 16 September 2021 to 30 October 2021, the heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament shows the works of His hands, this is a time frame that reveals the particulars of the Abrahamic

Covenant – its guarantor the LORD, its legal executors Abraham and Sarah, and its first beneficiary Isaac. Its fulfillment in Jesus. It is a legal contract, written in the heavens, so that all creation can see and know that the Creator of the heavens and the earth is in a legally binding contractual relationship with a particular people who descend from the loins of Abraham and Sarah and the other nations were grafted in through Jesus.

The LORD Jesus who humbled Himself and became just like vulnerable baby, allowed himself to be raised by a regular poor couple, grew into a man, and made choices that enabled Him to BECOME the Savior. He allowed Himself to come through the channel of fallen man in order to redeem us (Phil 2:5-11, Joh 3:16, Rom 5:6-8). It is during this season that many in unreached places will receive a heavenly revelation of the redemptive role of Jesus who was born to save mankind from eternal destruction (1 Joh 3:8). Isaiah prophesied about the Branch that would spring forth from Jesse. Jesus proceeded to display the 7 spirits of God. It is in this season that we have the opportunity to manifest in greater measure, each of the 7 Spirits of God in this new season (Isa 11:1-2) review the message of the cross and ask the Holy Spirit to give us a revelation on this greatest altar that was ever raised. This journal is filled this month the message calling us back to follow the example of Jesus. Prophetically call forth and revisit the importance of "carrying your cross" daily as commanded by Jesus. The Cross was the scene of the new covenant that was cut between the LORD and man restoring us back into fellowship with Him and therefore back into our redemptive purpose as mankind to rule and reign with Him forever. Meditate and prophesy Gen 1:26-28, Rev 22:4-5 and ask the Holy Spirit to bring you to a new and greater revelation of the significance of the Cross and the covenant we have through it.

The heavens indeed declare that we

The heavens are declaring Jesus Christ soon return, and we must be ready. Do not ignore this expectation. The heavens are also declaring the season of judgment which brings forth justice and righteousness even as the season on earth signifies. You must press in on this for your nation that justice and judgment will be done. The heavens declare in line with this season.

The LORD is the complete and total solution to the question of reconciliation of man and all of creation to the LORD. He is indeed the price which covered the cost of sin through all eternity. Rev 5:12 . The heavens are declaring a season of balance but also a season of judgment. Scales symbolize judgment. Those who reject the message of salvation, redemption and deliverance in this season will indeed face a season of judgment so that they will realize the seriousness of including the LORD in the equation of their lives and making poor choices. Prophecy over every area in your nation that requires the just scales of the Lord to be applied in every gate of society including family, politics and governance, education, and economy etc

WERE YOU BORN IN SEPTEMBER?

- ❖ Praise the Lord for making you manifest into the human society this month. Ask Him to push you into your destiny in Him in this season and in your generation.
- ❖ Read Psalm 127; Pray that you will be built up by the Lord. Every endeavour you will undertake shall be only that which God has His hand upon. Pray that you will not waste time building in vain or working in vain. Pray that you will land on target, you will not miss the purpose for which He has allowed you to live to see another birthday in this season.
- ❖ Pray that the joy of the Lord will be your strength this month of your birth.
- ❖ Prophecy that you will operate after the pattern of the Lord. You will rise and rise; not rise and fall, you will go from grace to grace; not from grace to grass, you will live and leave a legacy of righteousness and justice. You will fulfil all that God has purposed for you in your family, the church, your nation and in the other nations of the world
- ❖ Ask the dayspring to take the earth by its edges and shake out every wickedness planned against every kingdom citizen who is celebrating their birthday this month. Each shall fulfil purpose unhindered. Every challenge they face will only make them stronger this month. (Jer 21:12, Job 38:12-13).

God's Assigned Agents

Scripture: Ephesians 1:7, Genesis 45:4-6

Ephesians 1:7 says, "In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace..." Redemption is a very interesting word. It is ap-ol-oo-tro-sis. It's a compound word meaning 'to release or liberate through the payment of a ransom.' In effect Jesus has liberated us through the payment of His Blood. But redemption takes on various degrees of preparation in the lives of people that God uses, like Joseph. So, we not only have to look at redemption from the perspective of being blood-bought by Christ, but also as agents of redemption like Joseph who endured a preparational price-tag to qualify. "I am Joseph your brother whom you sold into Egypt. For God sent me before you to preserve life." Scripture is full of individuals God chose and took through tremendous adversity only to raise them up to a position of authority in a very critical moment so that they could redeem God's people from destruction. Mordecai and Esther were such individuals. We see in Scripture that redemption is a two-edged sword. If we are on the side of God liberating us personally, then Someone else (Jesus) is paying the price. It is also possible to be the one that is paying the price and who's being used as the agent of redemption. It all depends on what God has ordained in the scope of our assignment and the preparational price to fit our end-time assignment! We are His witnesses and have to walk accordingly. It is always easier if someone else is buying the shoes. It is ten times more difficult when we buy the shoes that the end-time witnesses walk in! This is the pattern of Christ in Scripture. He redeems us and He expects us to pay the price to redeem others. All those who attain the testimony of Jesus qualify! Redemption should be viewed from two different perspectives.

What does this tell you about God? What does this story in Genesis tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Praise God for the ninth Gregorian month.
- ❖ Pray into the womb of every single day of this month, that on a daily basis, you will experience a quantum leap, a quick and sudden promotion in your life, spiritual growth, and perception of things. Pray this also for your friends, family, and church. Isa 51:16
- ❖ Pray that you will be moved to a new level in wisdom, revelation knowledge, and the other inspirational gifts of the Holy Spirit. Pray this for the Body of Yeshua.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 02

The cross: cost Jesus everything
Genesis 41:1-4

Genesis 41:1-4 says, "Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river. Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow. Then behold seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river. "And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke." Joseph had been incarcerated in Egypt. When the butler was released, he thought he was about to escape the false imprisonment that captured him but he still had two full years! God waited two full years after Pharaoh's butler was redeemed from prison to set Joseph free. The unfairness of the past did not matter. Joseph said, 'I've done nothing to deserve this.' The butler promptly forgot about Joseph for two full years. Who was involved in that? God was! What can we say about a God Who was willing to pay the price to redeem us from sin, then could sell us into slavery to help others? That was Joseph's testimony. It was God who purposed and ordered Joseph's life. It was God who brought him up and ordained him for this. It was God Who extracted the preparational price out of Joseph's life. It was Joseph's blood in the street that qualified him to be an agent of redemption. Do many preach about this side of the cross? It is no wonder that we have people who don't understand who God is or His plan and purpose. The most central truth in all of Scripture is called the cross. In all of history the cross is the dividing line event that redeems failure. Thousands of believers go to church every Sunday and how many of them learn to carry the cross? How many Christians learn to embrace the cross? The Lord told us that in the last days not everyone would want to hear the truth. Are we willing to speak real truth about redemption? The cross-cost Jesus everything. It will cost us something if we embrace the Spirit's leadership. According to the book of Revelation walking through the last days is very costly for the church! The church overcomes by the blood of the lamb and the word of our testimony, loving not our own lives even unto the death, Revelation 12:11b. What does this tell you about God? What does this story in Genesis tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

- ❖ Pray that as the heavens declare, you will during this season go back to the message of the cross and ask the Holy Spirit to give you a revelation on this greatest altar that was ever raised.
- ❖ Pray that you will revisit the importance of "carrying your cross" daily as commanded by Yeshua. The cross was the scene of the new covenant that was cut between Jehovah and man restoring us back into fellowship with Him and therefore back into our redemptive purpose as mankind to rule and reign with Him forever.
- ❖ Read and meditate on Gen 1:26-28, Rev 22:4-5 and ask the Holy Spirit to bring you to a new and greater revelation of the significance of the cross and the covenant we have through it.

"According to God, repentance is a way of life!"
2 Timothy 4:1-5; 1 Corinthians 6:9a; 2 Timothy 4:1-4

2 Timothy 4:1-5, 1 Corinthians 6:9a
2 Timothy 4:1-4 is quite descriptive of church life in many, many places today. It says, "I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and His kingdom: Preach the word. Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and teaching. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up to themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth and be turned aside to fables.” The cross is hard to hear. Grace is a much more appealing message. It is much easier to tolerate than to hate the evil that God judges. Many churches accept sexual sin that God forbids. We can't redeem people who won't repent. Sound doctrine shows us what to repent for. Christianity without repentance for sin is not Christianity. God accepts a repentant heart. 1 Corinthians 6:9a says, “Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived.” Will we repent for violating what God refuses to accept in heaven? Jesus redeemed us from our sin but we have to acknowledge and turn from it! Repentance becomes a way of life for a believer! Deception seems to rule in many churches where they see no need for repentance! Some false prophets teach licentious grace where we only repent once and, that is enough according to them. According to God, repentance is a way of life!What do these scriptures tell you about God? What do these scriptures tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

- ❖ Stand on Psalm 91:10-13 and decree that no evil shall befall you and that no plague shall come near your family, receive angelic protection, and abort the hidden plot and plans of the enemy against you.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to make you a blessing and use you to help someone that is in need.
- ❖ On a regular basis, proclaim Isaiah 40-49 to contend with every deity that endeavors to raise themselves above the knowledge of the Lord – those gods are not God, and they will utterly fail in every generation,

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 04

- ❖ Rosh H'shanah begins at sundown on September 04 to sundown on September 06, 2021.
- ❖ Feast of Trumpets [Rosh H'shanah] often portrayed as the season of harvest and indeed the end time harvest and of the coming of the Lord. This was a time of rejoicing.
- ❖ Pray that Jehovah will fill kingdom citizens with His joy. Pray that Jehovah will clothe you with a garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Is 61:3, Neh 8:10.
- ❖ Read 2 Chron 5:12-13; 1 Pet 1:8; Ps 95:1-3; Zep 3:17.
- ❖ Pray that Jehovah should also be mighty in your midst and rejoice over all His people all over the world with joy and singing. Let it be a time to seek Him and ask Him to reveal to you His Almighty, His awesomeness, Who He is as opposed to whom you have made Him to be in comparison with the circumstances around you.
- ❖ Read Joel 2 Pray that during these days Jehovah will reveal to you the reality of the Day of the Lord you will give account for your life before Jehovah either when He returns or when you die and depart from earth. Pray that the reality of that season will help you, and the Body of Christ at large, to change the way you pray, the way you are working and your focus, the seriousness to accomplish the Great Commission, and the way you relate to other people.

what is your personal assignment concerning the redemption?
Genesis 41:2-7

Pharaoh had a dream. In that dream seven cows, fine and fat came up out of the river. And then seven other cows came up after them who were ugly and gaunt. The ugly, gaunt cows ate up the fine-looking cows. Then

Pharaoh had a second dream. There were seven heads of grain that came up on one stalk looking plump and good. Then seven thin heads blighted by the east winds sprang up after them and the seven thin heads devoured the good heads. When Pharaoh awoke, he pondered the perplexing dream. Pharaoh had a problem. He needed an interpretation—Who could interpret such a dream? Can we imagine a circumstance that might arise that would cause a high-ranking official to search for us? What assignment does God have for us concerning the issue of redemption? We've been redeemed and Jesus bought and paid for that but there is another question that we need to wrestle with and that is, what is our personal assignment concerning the redemption of the church and the lost? Can we represent God as an ambassador of redemption? Will we be ready, like

Joseph if an opportunity arises? Is the pattern of the cross being reproduced anywhere in our life concerning the issue of redemption? Is it possible in our adversity, even in the midst of devastating circumstances that God could be sculpting and shaping us to be agents of redemption? That is a question that some of us may not be ready to ask God because we are not ready to hear the answer. What do these scriptures tell you about God? What do these scriptures tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 05

The pattern of the cross!

Genesis 41:9-14

Upon hearing of Pharaoh's dream, the chief butler, once imprisoned alongside of Joseph, was grieved and repentant concerning his fellow prisoner, Joseph. The butler says, "I remember my faults this day. When Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, we each had a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream. Now there was a young Hebrew man with us there, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his own dream. And it came to pass, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved and changed his clothing and came to Pharaoh. "Could it be possible? Would God ever do anything like this with us? Would He use our past experience in order to bring redemption to others, perhaps many others? Joseph was assigned to redeem the lives of multitudes that would have faced starvation. That is a major assignment on a national level. And that also has a national price tag. Let's realize something. That price varies from top to bottom. It could be as little as the sacrificing of our time to be available or as much as being in jail for no reason! Jails come in various forms. They may come in a lack of provision or in affliction.

They may come in a variety of ways. 'Lord, turn our captivity into our anointing that redeems other people.' He does it all the time. It is amazing how many believers walk through captivity of one sort or another only to get delivered and become an agent of redemption. What they were delivered from becomes their preparation and qualification for ministry. Let's note that there is a pattern here. It is called the pattern of the cross! What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

- ❖ Pray that as the heavens declare, you will during this season go back to the message of the cross and ask the Holy Spirit to give you a revelation on this greatest altar that was ever raised.
- ❖ Pray that you will revisit the importance of "carrying your cross" daily as commanded by Yeshua. The cross was the scene of the new covenant that was cut between Jehovah and man restoring us back into fellowship with Him and therefore back into our redemptive purpose as mankind to rule and reign with Him forever.
- ❖ Read and meditate on Gen 1:26-28, Rev 22:4-5 and ask the Holy Spirit to bring you to a new and greater revelation of the significance of the cross and the covenant we have through it.

A lifestyle that reflects the testimony of Jesus:

1 Corinthians 1:17 1 Corinthians 1:17

1 Corinthians 1:17 1 Corinthians 1:17 says, “For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with wisdom of words, but the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.” In how many churches today is the cross of Christ of no effect? If we as leadership were doing a thorough job of Biblical preparation, Christians would know and understand the cross. There is a phrase that runs as a thread through Revelation— “the testimony of Jesus” is that phrase. Becoming a redeemer requires that we embrace a lifestyle that reflects the testimony of Jesus. It was for Joseph, and it certainly can be for us. But do we see it as God's Hand of preparation? Or do we see it as God against us? If we are looking at it as God against us and it is actually God qualifying us, then the real Biblical truth of redemption has been hidden. We don't see the cross for what it is. We don't recognize the principle of the cross as the real intervention of God that changes history. How can such eternal truth be hidden from so many believers? Probably because it was too pricey to hear, Peter refused to hear it and rebuked Jesus for it! Nobody among the disciples wanted to pay the price so they ran. All twelve denied Christ! They, like Peter, all declared their faithfulness and then promptly failed. They had to repent! That response brought the humility that qualified them. Repentance and humility are good soil in which to plant seeds of redemption. Are we living out the same preparational pattern without realizing it? What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ There are four significant phases of the moon that control the seasons. During each phase, there is active spiritual activity, either from the members of the kingdom of darkness affecting man negatively, or from the members of the kingdom of light affecting man positively.

- ❖ As God's official representatives on earth, you know all things were created to give God pleasure; so personally call upon the spirit of God to guide you and the rest of the church into specific areas of prayer for each phase, so each phase will fulfill God's pattern as His will for man on earth is fulfilled. Today @ 00:52 a.m. is the new moon

- ❖ Command the new moon to praise Jehovah as it ushers in not only a new month, but the new civil year. Command the heavens to declare only Jehovah's glory during every new moon of the civil year 5781.
- ❖ Command the moon to ignore every instruction that is contrary to the purposes of Jehovah for it. It shall obey only what He ordained it to do in Gen 1:14-17, Psalm 104:19-20.
- ❖ Prophecy every good thing you would like to see growing in your life this new month.
- ❖ Pray this for your family, the body of Jesus and your territory.
- ❖ As the new moon waxes, so shall the prophetic word continue to grow and wax in the coming days.

A heart for redemption was formed in the fiery furnaceGenesis 41:25-36

Joseph related Pharaoh's own dream to him and he proceeded to tell Pharaoh what his dream meant. Beyond that he told Pharaoh exactly what to do. Pharaoh was stunned and amazed because it made perfect sense. The word of wisdom had come to Pharaoh through Joseph. When Joseph's price tag of adversity ended, a different price emerged. He had the responsibility of administering the dream as it unfolded for the purpose of saving nations. The price of separation, waiting, loneliness and isolation all fell on Joseph's shoulders as he carried the weight of a missionary. He possessed a heart for redemption which was formed in the fiery furnace of a dungeon where slavery, servanthood and rejection ruled. Now Joseph qualified for being God's divine Hand leading to the pathway for preservation in answer to Pharaoh's prophetic dream. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 08Sculptured as a redeemer for his own nationGenesis 41:37-46 Genesis 41:37-46

Genesis 41:37-46 marked Joseph's transition from prison to being number two in command in the nation of Egypt. He now reigned over Pharaoh's house and all his people. Joseph's word became law in Egypt! By Pharaoh's own decree, only in regard to the throne was Pharaoh greater than Joseph. Pharaoh took off his own signet ring and put it on Joseph's hand. This ring was a symbol of governmental power. Pharaoh placed Joseph in a chariot as second in command and they cried before him, "Bow the knee!" The ruler set Joseph over all the land of Egypt! Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt." Joseph acquired a new name, and a wife and he began to administrate the nation of Egypt.

He was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh and now he experienced fourteen years of the vision coming to pass. He realized that God was willing to spend thirty years of his life just in preparation to sculpt him as a redeemer for his own nation. Will we wake up and realize that we serve a God who's willing to spend decades forming and shaping our heart before He releases us to be an agent of redemption. It's enough to make us consider and ponder our personal calling and purpose. Our life is not our own. We've been bought with a price therefore we have a choice. Will we serve God acceptably? Will we say yes to the cross? Will we pay the price to follow in the footsteps of our Redeemer and lay down our life for others? What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

❖ Pray into the womb of every single day of this month, that on a daily basis, you will experience a quantum leap, a quick and sudden promotion in your life, spiritual growth and perception of things. Pray this also for your friends, family and church. Isa 51:16 .

- ❖ Pray through Revelation 22:2; you and the Body of Yeshua at large, will receive the fruit from the tree of life for the 9th month.
- ❖ Pray that every healing which you require in your body, soul and spirit, in your finances, your family and relationships will be released to you as you partake of the virtues released in the leaves that are for the healing of nations this month.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 09The anointing to spoil has A price TagGenesis 41:49-57

Genesis 41:49-57 The Bible says clearly in Genesis 41:49, "Joseph gathered grain very much, as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable." Joseph had two sons, Manasseh, for God made him forget all his toil and all his father's house. The name of the second was

Ephraim for God caused him to be fruitful in the land of his affliction. When the seven years of plenty ended, the famine became so great that other nations started coming to Egypt. When people cried for food

Pharaoh sent them to Joseph saying, "Whatever he says to you, do." Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians and the famine became so severe in the land of Egypt and beyond. All countries came for food to buy grain because of the severity of the famine. God set Joseph up and Joseph transferred the wealth of the nations to Egypt because of their storehouses of provision. What is that a picture of? That is a picture that is prophesied over and over again in Scripture for the end-time church. From Genesis to James that is a Biblical principle concerning the wealth of the wicked. But before we causally start claiming it maybe we ought to consider the price tag of Joseph. If the price tag of Joseph is the picture of what it takes to execute the anointing to spoil maybe, we should think twice about whether or not we want to pay that price for such an anointing. Who knew that redemption could be so costly? The testimony of Jesus can only be gained by sheer obedience as we lay down our life for others! Do we recognize the pattern? What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

❖ The number 9 signifies finality or judgment, the judgment of man and all his works. The number 9 also signifies the cycle of gestation for pregnant women. It signifies birthing. It is the final single digit number before the double-digit numbers begin.

- ❖ Pray that during this month, Jehovah will safely bring forth His purposes which are due for this season in the lives of kingdom citizens everywhere.
- ❖ Pray through Revelation 22:2; you and the Body of Christ at large, will receive the fruit from the tree of life for the 9th month.
- ❖ Pray that every healing which you require in your body, soul and spirit, in your finances, your family and relationships will be released to you as you partake of the virtues released in the leaves that are for the healing of nations this month.

The anointing of redemption to others

Hebrews 12:1-4 Hebrews 12:1-4

Hebrews 12:1-4 is an exhortation to embrace the cross! It says, "Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin." How much opposition did Joseph face? How much by Potiphar himself who believed the lies of his wife and threw him in prison? How much opposition? The price of being a redeemer is incredible. The Bible makes it clear that we have a choice as to whether or not we are going to accept that price or not. Part of that process includes resisting sin. How many of us resist and how many of us yield. God didn't give up, He sent us His Son who paid the price to redeem us! Even if we are in a multiple repeat type of bondage, Jesus paid the ultimate price for redemption. He redeems us and does so as soon as we accept it. We can start taking the anointing of redemption to others. We have to receive it first! That is what Hebrews 12 is all about. Will we receive what God has done for us so we can be the agents of redemption? What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going tell or share with?

- ❖ There are four significant phases of the moon that control the seasons. During each phase, there is active spiritual activity, either from the members of the kingdom of darkness affecting man negatively, or from the members of the kingdom of light affecting man positively.

- v As God's official representatives on earth, you know all things were created to give God pleasure; so personally call upon the spirit of God to guide you and the rest of the church into specific areas of prayer for each phase, so each phase will fulfill God's pattern as His will for man on earth is fulfilled. (Joh 16:13; Rev 4:11)

Have you asked what has to happen in order to bring the brothers into admission of sin and repentance

Genesis 42

Genesis 42 gives us the account of Joseph's brothers as they went down to Egypt to buy grain. Joseph set them up by secretly restoring their money with which they purchased the needed grain. When they arrived home, they were shocked to find the money with their belongings. So Joseph caught and ambushed them with the money and then accused them and set them up when they returned that they must include their youngest brother along with them. Joseph knew exactly what needed to happen in order to bring the brothers into admission of sin and repentance. Joseph had a long time to construct an avenue of repentance for his brothers!. Isn't it interesting that God offers the path to redemption by acknowledging and facing the truth of our sin! We have to be truthful to ourselves and to God. We have to be truthful with others. Joseph set his brothers up to face their own sin. It had to happen. It was the price of redemption. Surely we will recognize that and agree to it so that we can shoulder the full measure of God's anointing to redeem. Joseph initiated a plan in which his brothers would eventually have to admit and take responsible ownership of their sin. God has such a plan for multitudes. Will we fully submit to it and go on to participate in executing it!What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Stand on Psalm 91:10-13 and decree that no evil shall befall you and that no plague shall come near your family, receive angelic protection and abort the hidden plot and plans of the enemy against you.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to make you a blessing and use you to help someone that is in need.
- ❖ On a regular basis, proclaim Isaiah 40-49 to contend with every deity that endeavors to raise themselves above the knowledge of the Lord – those gods are not God and they will utterly fail in every generation

Are we willing to forgive treachery and become a redeemer?

In Genesis 43 Joseph sprang his trap on the brothers who now had Benjamin with them and Joseph had to work very hard to hide his feeling because he yet had one more surprise to pull on them. He invited them to his house. They ate together and he set them up to acknowledge what they had done. Joseph had already recognized God's Hand in sending him ahead to redeem the Israelites. What do we say as we look at the truth of God's preparation and the price tag? Joseph was willing to forgive their treachery and become a redeemer. How many of us will accept such a weighty path? How many even recognize what's unfolding in front of us. 'God, deliver us from itching ears and from the inability to see Your ways and plans. God, transition us to a point that we can recognize Your Hand in our lives making us representatives of Christ in our generation!' If the church is going to be the church, we are going to have to stand up as agents of redemption in the last days. 'God give us ears to hear and eyes to see and an understanding, obedient heart, in Jesus name!'What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Pray that you will derive the characteristic of the date palm which thrives in the harshest desert conditions but still bears succulent fruit to an old age.
- ❖ Pray this for the family and the church especially at such a time when we are facing a rising level of persecution in various parts of the world.
- ❖ May the Lord grant you the nature of the fig tree which flourishes with the greatest luxuriance in those barren and stony situations where little else will grow. Its large size, and its abundance of five-lobed leaves render it a pleasant shade tree; and its fruit furnished a wholesome food, very much used in all the lands of the Bible. Thus it was a symbol of peace and plenty. Pray this for the family, Ekklesia and your territory 1Ki 4:25 Micah 4:4 Zec. 3:10 John 1:49-51.

- ❖ Make a declaration into the sun, moon and stars and to all the host of heaven using Ps 19. Command the heavens to declare the glory of God during every phase of the moon.
- ❖ Pray, declare, wipe out, blot and nullify any projections, proclamations, decrees, utterances and declarations made into the heavens - sun, moon, stars, constellations, to influence the month of September in order to control events in the lives of men on the earth. (Col. 2:14-15, Zeph 3:15).

- ❖ Pray that God will cut off those who handle the sickle in the time of harvest to harvest the gains of ignorant people. (Jer 50:16)
- ❖ Pray that God will shine into the hearts of people, that they may turn to God and receive a revelation of Christ (2 Cor 4:6, Hab 2:14)
- ❖ Pray that the quarter moon will do only Jehovah's bidding - to praise Him and give Him pleasure as they display His glory on earth (Col 1:15-20, Rev 4:11).

Are you aware that God Can set you up for your Redemption and for Redeeming others?

Genesis 44:1-13

In Genesis 44:1-13 Joseph commands a steward in his house to fill the brothers' sacks with food, as much as they could carry and to put each man's money in the mouth of his sack. Joseph also has his own silver cup put in Benjamin's sack. The morning dawned the brothers headed back to their father. They were not too far off when Joseph sent men after them saying, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?' Joseph trapped his brothers! Joseph's servants searched each sack and the silver cup was found in Benjamin's sack. The brothers tore their clothing in grief and they all returned to the city and they were brought before Joseph.

What a set up! It was a set up with a purpose and the purpose was redemptive. It was their moment of truth presenting them with an opportunity to acknowledge their sin. That was what God asked them to do, to be truthful and take ownership of their sin. It is in speaking the truth that we are set free and qualify to be redeemed and then to go on to become agents of redemption ourselves. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14When will you be forced to face the truth*Genesis 44:14-31

Genesis 44:14-31 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house and Joseph acted offended saying, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly divine?" Judah answered, what shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found." Joseph responded, "Far be it from me that I should do so but the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father." Judah replied, "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even like Pharaoh." Judah confessed and told the truth concerning the sin against Joseph those many years ago. He admitted their sin toward Joseph. Judah told of his father's inconsolable grief and explained that going home without Benjamin would bring the grief of death to their father. Joseph has perfectly set up the trap by forcing the brothers to recollect and recount why the father has such deep ties with his youngest child Benjamin. It was because of the loss of Joseph. They were being forced to face the truth. Joseph engineered the perfect trap. Will we learn from what we find in Scripture? I trust that we will because that is precisely how God prepares some for His agents of redemption. An assignment of redemption on such a large scale requires an equally deep and large preparation. Repentance opens a flood of redemption!

- ❖ Bloodshed always brings a curse on the land where the blood is shed; bring repentance for the bloodshed that continues by ISIS, Al Shabab, Boko Haram, Taliban, Al Qada etc.
- ❖ Declare that the blood of Jesus has already paid the price for bloodshed, for every single soul and all other bloodshed and sacrifices are rendered null and voided by reason of His sacrifice on the greatest altar ever raised – Calvary.

- ❖ Declare the Lord's judgment over those who bow to the queen of heaven and make these sacrifices to her – that He will watch over them for harm and not for good Jeremiaiah 44.25-27
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will raise a supernatural solution through kingdom citizens in government, in NGO's working in these trouble spots, on averting the death as we pray for divine ideas, and bind the principality under the Queen of heaven over these regions invaded by terrorism.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15What happened to me was God's doing!*Genesis 45:1-5

In Genesis 45:1-5 we are told, "Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make everyone go out from me!" So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it. And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph; does my father still live?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence. And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life." The dismayed brothers couldn't answer because they faced their guilt. When they came near they didn't receive judgment, they received redemption. "And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life." What a statement! Joseph was, in effect, saying, what happened to me was God's doing! Can we say that? Kenneth Hagin was near death with sickness as a child. In the midst of that experience God taught him faith. In order for him personally to carry an anointing to heal the sick, he had to wrestle with sickness for several years before the Word healed him! How many times have we seen that happen, over and over again! It happens with a variety of bondages. God sets people up to be redeemers by letting them taste the need for redemption. Joseph just walked this pattern and he declared it. Instead of judgment his brothers received redemption. Are we living the pattern that Joseph lived? Is it possible that we may yet see a healing or deliverance so that we can fulfill our destiny as believers? It is time we start looking at how God operates and accept that it may be happening to us. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? - ❖ Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) - sundown September 15 to sundown September 16, 2021.

- ❖ Day of Atonement [Yom Kippur] is a day which Jesus fulfilled by His final sacrifice on Calvary. Pray that in this season, the Ecclesia will recognize the need to reach the nations with the Great Commission to fulfill the purpose for which Jesus fulfilled this feast.
- ❖ Pray that many Jewish people who observe religiously this season oblivious to the fact that Jesus has already fulfilled this feast on the Cross, will receive a visitation of the risen Jesus as they seek Him in their observances and ignorance.
- ❖ The other part of the prophetic fulfillment of this day is an eschatological event when Jesus will be at-one with His bride. Pray that you and kingdom citizens in your territory will develop a desire and longing for the coming of Jesus and thus be prepared for our Bridegroom and we will not be like the 5 foolish virgins who were unprepared. Rev 22.17. Matt 25.1-13

When deliverance comes the anointing to be a redeemer comes with it.
Genesis 45:6-13

In Genesis 45:6-7 Joseph says, "For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance." What a powerful statement! 'God sent me before you to redeem your lives, it wasn't you, it was God!' How many times is this repeated in the lives of people. Over and over and over again the cross comes on us. And when deliverance comes the anointing to be a redeemer comes with it. Joseph is declaring that he has tasted the cross of Christ and now God has done it by His Mighty Hand and He's done it through His divine intervention. The whole purpose was to save Joseph's family and preserve salvation's path through Abraham's lineage. The truth of the cross unfolding in the lives of people has developed through the life of Joseph. Isn't it possible that it might be unfolding in us? We should at least be asking, 'Lord, am I living part of this pattern and never realized it. We may be stunned at the answer we hear from the Lord. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Declare Isa 45.2-3 that in this season Jehovah will go ahead of you, make a way where there seem to be no way, deliver you from every bondage, even the legal right bondages that the enemy may lay claim to through ancestral wickedness, curses and self-inflicted bondage (Isa 49.24-26).
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will release for you treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, He will make streams flow in the desert for you.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17What fruit does God want us to bring into eternity with us?*Genesis 45:13-23

Genesis 45:13-23 In verse 13 Joseph said, "So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my father down here." In verses 17-23 the message to the sons of Jacob was, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan. Bring your father and your households and 7 come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land. Now you are commanded— do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come. Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.' Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey. He gave to all of them, to each man, changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments. And he sent to his father these things: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey." Joseph became the redeemer. What are we to become? What fruit does God want us to bring into eternity with us? Is this pattern unfolding in our life? Probably it is, to one degree or another. Let God show us and let's walk it out without bitterness or defeat. Then we like Joseph will eventually be able to say, "For God sent me before you to preserve life." That is an eternal truth worth living!

- ❖ In this season of key Feasts of the Lord, pray that many Jews worldwide who are earnestly seeking for the Messiah, will find that Jesus Christ is the fulfilment of every feast.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to cause them to have encounters with Him, during the feast days, and that many will have the veil lifted off their face, to behold the Messiah Jesus Christ for who He truly is - the awaited Messiah

- ❖ Pray for those Jews - the natural olives who had been cut off so that you could be grafted in shall not perish in your generation but will come to know and accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah (Rom 11).
- ❖ "O give not the soul of your dove to the hawk; let not the life of the poor go out of your memory for ever. Keep in mind your undertaking; for the dark places of the earth are full of pride and cruel acts. O let not the crushed be turned back in shame; let the low man and the poor give praise to your name. Up! O God be the judge of your cause; keep in mind the bitter things which the man of evil behavior says against you every day. Keep in mind the voice of your haters; the outcry of those who come against you goes up every day." Psalm 74:19-23 (Bible in Basic English (BBE)).
- ❖ Ask for the peace of Jerusalem.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18God redeemed the Israelites in the time of great famine
Genesis 46:1-5

The sons of Jacob brought their father down to Egypt to see Joseph. "So Israel took his journey with all he had and came to Beersheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. Then God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, 'Jacob, Jacob' and he said, 'Here I am and He said, I am God the God of your father, Do not fear to go down to Egypt for I will make you a great nation there. I will go down with you to Egypt and I will also surely bring you up again,' and Joseph will put his hand on your eyes.

Then Jacob arose from Beersheba and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob to Egypt..." God redeemed the Israelites in the time of great famine. How many people does God want to redeem and what is coming in the future that the anointing He gives us will cause us to be agents of redemption? What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ There are many souls that have been downtrodden and discouraged. There are many who have illnesses with cells that have gone rogue, died away or refused to regenerate. However, in this new season, speak to those cells and command them to resurrect for this is a promise from the Lord.
- ❖ On a daily basis, speak to your soul, encourage yourself, speak to your cells and declare His promise. Pray also for kingdom citizens who are believing God for various levels of emotional and physical regeneration. (Isa 40:28-31).
- ❖ Pray that your cell regeneration is not determined by health, age or medication. It is determined by the word of the Lord.
Whatever disease or disaster whatever cells have degenerated for whatever reason, shall regenerate and receive renewal and resurrection. 2 Chronicles 6:28-31.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

Genesis 47:5-ff

In Genesis 47 we are told, "Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, 'Your father and your brothers have come to you. The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know any competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock.' Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Pharaoh said to Jacob. 'How old are you?' And Jacob said to Pharaoh, 'The days of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.'" We serve a God that can cause you and I to bless a 'Pharaoh.' The question is, are we willing to pay the price that redeemers have to pay to qualify for the anointing to redeem?

Thank God that Joseph did. And thank God that we are called to this very thing. The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. This means preparation for the future must include the willingness to accept the cross!What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Stand on Psalm 91:10-13 and decree that no evil shall befall you and that no plague shall come near your family, receive angelic protection and abort the hidden plot and plans of the enemy against you.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to make you a blessing and use you to help someone that is in need.
- ❖ On a regular basis, proclaim Isaiah 40-49 to contend with every deity that endeavors to raise themselves above the knowledge of the Lord – those gods are not God and they will utterly fail in every generation, Today @ 11:54p.m is the full moon.

- ❖ The moon is a celestial body made up of a luminous substance that absorbs light from the sun during the day and emits this light at night. Satanic and demonic activities especially the worship of the host of heaven are heightened at full moon. God forbids this. (Deut 4:19; 17:3). Many do these activities because they are looking for supernatural power to overcome various physical challenges.
- ❖ At full moon, the part of the moon presented to the sun for sunlight, fully emits the light received as light to the earth at night.

- ❖ Similarly, when the spirit of man is presented to the Lord, it absorbs spiritual light from the Lord God who is the source of light because He is a sun (Ps 84:11a; Mal 4:2a) then he emits the light absorbed in the realm of the spirit to give light to the world that is full of darkness. The more the light you receive from the word, the brighter you will shine.

Do not raise your own enemies through unfaithfulness

Genesis 19:30-38, Ruth 1:1-5

The story of Ruth is the narrative of an Israelite family who journeyed to Moab to flee a severe famine. Both sons of Elimelech and Naomi marry Moabite women. After the death of the husband and both sons, Naomi decided to return to Israel. Studying this account necessitates that we look at the history of Moab. In Genesis 19 we discover that both Moab and Ammon were born out of an incestual relationship between Lot's daughters and himself after the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. These two nations have a parallel origin in history and are often mentioned together as the cause of Israel's unfaithfulness to the Lord. It is amazing to see how two nations dedicated to the destruction of Israel were born out of Lot's sin and consistently fought against Israel throughout their history.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

How would you help someone born under A curse?

Look at Ruth.

Revelation 2:14, Ruth 1:1-5

Numbers 24, 25:1-13

In studying Moab it was Balak the king of Moab who hired the prophet Baalam to curse the children of Israel. When that did not work, Baalam instructed the Moabite women to seduce the men of Israel and lead them to worship their idols thus breaking God's covenant so they could defeat

Israel. This was so abhorrent to God it is referenced in Revelation 2:14 as a doctrine which Jesus hates called the doctrine of Baalam. Because of this 24,000 Israelites were killed by the plague and because of this in Numbers 25:9 the Moabites were forever banned from the assembly of the Lord's people. When we look at Moab and Ammon these people groups are consistently enemies of God and their people are almost born with a penchant to seduce and bring destruction upon Israel and lure them into sin. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Thank the Lord that you are at the threshold of a new season.
- ❖ Command the season of autumn/spring to bring forth its best for you and all yours.
- ❖ Pray that as the sun passes the equator, those who try to manipulate the heavens to draw power during this season will experience confusion and the opposite of their expectations (Isa 44:24-25).

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Liason with the descendants of Lot contributed to the downfall of Israel

1 Kings 11:2-7, 32-24

1 Kings 11:2-7, 32-24 A few hundred years after the Baalam incident King Solomon would choose to marry Moabite women. These women seduced Solomon to worship their false God's and erect high places. Solomon's relationship with the descendants of Lot and his subsequent worship of their idols led directly to the division of the kingdom into the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the Southern Kingdom of Judah. This liaison with the descendants of Lot contributed to the downfall of Israel. Moab used the same pattern as originated by Lot's daughters and they brought the wrath of God on covenant Israel. It is no wonder God banned them from the congregation forever, which was unusual. It shows a persistent, determined enemy and their origin. Do we see the doctrine of Balaam today? Yes, championed consistently by some people whose world view increasingly rejects Bible morality as it applauds God-hating, God-mocking and God-robbing. The spirit of anti-Christ dominates educational, judicial, and increasingly commercial institutions as well!

- ❖ Declare Isa 45:2-3 that in this season Jehovah will go ahead of you, make a way where there seem to be no way, deliver you from every bondage, even the legal right bondages that the enemy may lay claim to through ancestral wickedness, curses and self-inflicted bondage (Isa 49:24-26).
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will release for you treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, He will make streams flow in the desert for you.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

God, looks for a righteous and receptive heart even among a Moabite or an Ammonite

Nehemiah 2:10, Jeremiah 48:3-4, Nehemiah 13:2,13

In the book of Nehemiah we read of Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite. A Horonite was person from a city of Moab. Again, we discover the Moabites and the Ammonites seeking the downfall of Israel. Sanballat used every trick in the book to discourage Nehemiah and his group in their work including mockery, threats, attacks, and blackmail all of which proved to no avail. Sanballat tried to lure Nehemiah into an ungodly alliance just as Moab had done on previous occasions. Fortunately, Nehemiah saw through the scheme and would not even meet with the enemy. When this did not work the Moabites tried to tempt Nehemiah to sin by entering the temple in the hope the Lord would judge Nehemiah as he had the people of Israel, but this too did not work. The war was not really over for Nehemiah because just when it appeared that Moab would fail in their seduction, we read that quite a few Israelites married Moabites and Ammonites. In Nehemiah 3:13,23 this mixed multitude degraded the value of the Lord's people so that many of them could not speak the language of Israel but adopted the language and customs of the Moabites and Ammonites as stated in Nehemiah 13:24 To appreciate the story of Ruth we really have to understand the magnitude of hatred that both the Moabites and the Ammonites had for the Israelites. It was a lifelong opposition. Overcoming that was almost like a betrayal of the family that you grew up in, a betrayal of her heritage making the story of Ruth all the more appropriate and poignant to the issue of redemption. God, however, looks for a righteous and receptive heart even in a Moabite or an Ammonite who had been completely banned from the congregation. God recognizes and honors that heart, even when it comes from a culture of the most idolatrous, hateful enemies Israel had ever known. Redemption truly is available for everyone and that is the story of Ruth. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Read Dan 12:1; thank the Lord that the great warring arch-angel Michael that watches over Israel.
- ❖ Call forth for angelic assistance to protect that nation against all the hidden agendas to destroy her. The Lord has always protected His people, He will not fail to protect them again. Amen.
- ❖ Proclaim Psalm 83 over Israel in this season and Isa 49. From the womb of time, the Lord already marked and called this nation for His own purpose. His purposes must continue to be fulfilled and His will done in the face of so much contrariness from the nations all around. Even in this season, the Lord will rescue Israel and scatter all her enemies for His own name's sake.

Choices Have Real Consequences

Ruth 1:6-15

When Naomi's husband died, she could still depend upon her two sons. With the death of both sons, she was left in a strange country with two foreign-born daughters-in-law and no protector or provider. She does the honorable thing and releases both young women to return to their families. Ruth 8:1 says, "Go, return each to her mother's house. The Lord deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me." In verse 10 the women replied, "Surely we will return with you to your people." Naomi argues and says, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? Turn back and, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband.' She then says, 'It grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord has gone out against me!'...she said, 'Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after her.'" Ruth had every opportunity including the ties of her birth family that no doubt pulled on her to stay. This was a real choice and one that would have great physical, social, and relational consequences because of the customs of that day. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Command the land where you are to yield her best for you.
- ❖ Ask for the dethronement of the satanic authority given to your area.
- ❖ Come against covenants that have been made by some leaders in the past and are now causing backwardness in some nations.
- ❖ Pray that believers will rise up and fight to break the backbone of conspiracy and treachery of the agents of Satan.
- ❖ Pray that you will be sensitive to the Holy Spirit and commune with Him more and more, you will build yourself up as you pray in the Holy Spirit. Pray this for the Ecclesia

Ruth made a life-altering choice

Ruth 1:16-17

We get a glimpse into Ruth's heart when she says, "Entreat me not to leave you, or to turn back from following after you, For wherever you go, I will go; And wherever you lodge, I will lodge; Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God. Where you die I will die, And there will I be buried. The Lord do so to me, and more also, If anything but death parts you and me." Naomi witnessed Ruth's fervor and determination and stopped trying to dissuade her from returning to her native land. Together they journeyed to Bethlehem. What we've seen revealed so far in this narrative is a pivotal choice. Ruth made a life-altering choice, 'I like you better than my family. I like your God better than the God's of Moab. So I choose you! And I choose your God.' In returning to a land of previous famine, they were the lowest of the low and had no future except poverty. In the natural that was what was ahead. They were utterly dependent upon God! The question was, would they find redemption in Israel? Would God honor Ruth's choice to leave her family, her life, her culture, and the gods of her land? Ruth was choosing sacrifice, humility, and servanthood, embracing the cross! What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Dearly beloved, "Ye are the light of the world" but you cannot be light to the world if you fail to present your spirit to the Lord to be continuously enlightened by His word.
- ❖ The tangibility of your shining light to the world is your good works which you cannot do without light from the Lord. Proclaim and deeply meditate on Mat 5:14-16
- ❖ Pray for yourself, siblings, spouse, friends, the church, etc that God will inspire the above understanding and also birth the appetite for His word in you. (Job 32:8;)

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

You Will find Favour Today

Ruth 2:1-7

When they reached Bethlehem, they arrived during the time of the barley harvest. Naomi was related to a wealthy kinsman of her husband Elimelech. Ruth said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor." And Naomi agreed. Ruth went to the field of Boaz. She caught the eye of Boaz, and Boaz instructed the servant giving oversight to his field to be mindful and kind to Ruth. Ruth asked for permission to glean in his field and was granted the right to stay. The first thing that we see happen was Ruth found favor in Israel. A path of provision had opened. Now the question was, how wide would the door open?

What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ Pray for the persecuted church in the 10/40 window nations. Pray that as many as are truly seeking the Lord in these nations, will be found of Him.
- ❖ Pray that God will choose them for salvation in this season.
- ❖ Pray for extraordinary and miraculous encounters for many who are praying and seeking sincerely, yet are sincerely wrong.
- ❖ Pray for a Damascus experience for many who are pursuing God's purposes through wrong and destructive methods like suicide attacking and other terrorist activities.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

The Lord repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the Lord God of Israel

Ruth 2:8-12

Ruth 2:8-12 says, "Then Boaz said to Ruth, 'You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women. Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you. And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn.' So she fell on her face and bowed down to the ground and said to him. 'Why have I found favor in your eyes that you should take notice of me since I am a foreigner?' And Boaz answered and said to her. 'It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth and have come to a people whom you did not know before. The Lord repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge." Boaz saw Ruth's heart, took notice of her honorable character, and blessed her for it. What does this scripture tell you about God? What does this scripture tell you about man? Since this is God's word what changes do I need to make in my life? Whom am I going to tell or share with?

- ❖ In several African tribal communities, September is marked by the celebration of major traditional festivals, strengthening and/or renewal of altars and covenants with their deities.
- ❖ It is marked by offerings and sacrifices to the gods, drumming and dancing, sacred assemblies, resolutions and attempts at development of communities, ceremonies of rites of passage especially circumcision ceremonies in Eastern and Southern Africa.
- ❖ In some of the cultures it is a month of religious processions, music, dancing and theatrical exhibitions.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 28

Ruth followed her counsel, and they were blessed

Ruth 2:17-23

Ruth gleaned in the field and returned with grain for she and Naomi. When she set an abundant supply before Naomi, Naomi questioned her about where she had gleaned. In verse 19 she said, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did your work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law that it was Boaz. "Then Naomi said to her daughter in-law. Blessed be the Lord, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead! And Naomi said to her, 'This man is a relation of ours, one of our close relatives.'" Naomi instructed Ruth to stay in Boaz's fields. Ruth followed her counsel, and they were blessed. Naomi saw the provision of God. God had honored Ruth's heart and exemplary character, and He had brought them both provision in their return to Israel, and Naomi's home. Now the question was, where would God take them from here?

Today @ 1:58 a.m. is the last quarter moon

- ❖ The quarter moons are physically observed in the sky to be D shaped or its mirror image. The occult uses them as spiritual bows to shoot very specific disastrous words as arrows against the righteous and also into nations that result in marital confusion, unimaginable challenges in the lives of the righteous, riots and upheavals in nations.
- ❖ This is a period when the occult increase their enchantments, strength and fortification; they also reap the gains of the righteous who are ignorant. They are able to do these things by using the crescent moon as a spiritual sickle.
- ❖ Ask God to overthrow the acts of the wicked against the righteous just as He overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah (Amos 4:11a)
- ❖ Pray that God who sees them and the evil of the things they do will shoot His arrows into them, and let the poison drink up their spirits and His terrors set themselves in array against them unless they repent and return to Him. (Job 6:4)

The Lord Grant you Wisdom to a Resting Place

Ruth 3:1-9

Scripture: Ruth 3:1-9 Naomi was inspired to take another important step. God had opened a door of favor and Naomi sensed the prompting of the Lord to walk through. Naomi decided to seek security and shelter for Ruth and herself as if Ruth were truly her daughter. Naomi says, "My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you? Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Therefore, wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do. And she said to her, 'All that you say to me I will do.'" Ruth obeyed Naomi's words. She went to the threshing floor and uncovered Boaz's feet and quietly waited. Verse 8 goes on to say, “Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled and turned himself; and there a woman was lying at his feet. And he said, 'Who are you?' So, she answered, 'I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing, for you are a close relative.” Boaz was both stunned and amazed and impressed. Naomi's plan was in the process of fulfillment. The wisdom that she had been given was unfolding just as she hoped.

- ❖ Pray for an active desire to keep away from iniquity and seek to be holy in the Ecclesia.
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will preserve your soul so that when the Rapture occurs, you will be a part of those who will be caught up with the Lord, whether you are dead or alive.
- ❖ Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere (Jud 1:24; 1 Thess. 4:16-17).
- ❖ Pray for the outpouring of the Spirit to cover our lands - the release of the Holy Spirit like a raging wild fire, the manifestation of the Spirit made visible (among men-indigenes, Muslims, idolatrous people, pagans, intellectual, business men, prisoners, the sick etc(to make wrong things right. (Luke 11:13,18:1-8).

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Ruth willingly chose to place herself in the mercy of the God

Ruth 3:10-18

In Ruth 3:10-18 Boaz revealed his heart, “Then he said, 'Blessed are you of the Lord, my daughter? For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, In that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich. And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of the town know that you are a virtuous woman. Now it is true that I am a close relative, however, there is a relative closer than I. Stay this night, and in the morning, it shall be that if he will perform the duty of a close relative for you-good; let him do it.

But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as the Lord lives! Lie down until morning.' So, she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, 'Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor...' When she returned with the measures of barley Naomi said, “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day.” What an amazing story of redemption was unfolding in Ruth's life as she chose to turn her back on her family and all that was familiar. She had to choose to reject the gods of the Moabites and their ways. She chose the God of Israel, and she chose the harder path, the unfamiliar path. Ruth willingly chose to place herself in the mercy of the God. For Ruth, God's shelter and destiny were on the horizon and it was initiated through her humble willing heart. Will we choose God's shelter and destiny for ourselves? Will we venture into the unfamiliar if that is what God requires?

- ❖ Praise God for the last day of the third quarter of this year. Praise Him for protection, provision, health, and strength.
- ❖ Thank Him because He is good, always good ever faithful ever true. His mercy endureth forever.
- ❖ Praise Him because He has said of you:
 - There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
 - For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
 - They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
 - Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
 - Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
