May is a Month of Secrets and Healings

IN OUR DAY, ONLY A LIVING, HOLY, HOLY GHOST VIOLENCE WILL PREVAIL

Matthew 11:11 Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

The Lord Jesus had just been talking about discipleship. It is easy in this generation to understand a soldier going to war in the Afghanistan, Maiduguri or Iraq and die in the process for the sake of patriotism for country. It is easy to understand that for politics we give up our land, buildings and even our lives. But when Jesus begins to talk about "blood and tears" the people of today recoil. Jesus had just spoken about: -

1. A supreme love for Him-Jesus Christ (Matt. 10:33)
2. A denial of self (not self-denial)-making God's will your will.
3. A deliberate choosing of your cross (Matt 10:38).
4. A forsaking of ALL to follow Him-Jesus.

John the Baptist-the greatest of all them born of a woman and the least in the kingdom of heaven.

It is noteworthy to know this truth. When you hear this word you wonder!! If all that had arisen in this world, there was non-greater than John and yet he is the least in the kingdom of heaven, then this new thing was one of surpassing greatness. However, I don't think that we understand this!

~Why is John the Baptist the greatest among them that are born women?

- a) The prophecies concerning Christ were fulfilled in John as the forerunner.
- b) John the Baptist had the best grasp of what all the old Testament people spoke of but did not see happen.
- c) John the Baptist saw and enjoyed the salvation which others prophesied.
- d) John the Baptist preached repentance and forgiveness of sin all pointing to the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus-that is why Jesus was baptized of him to fulfil all righteousness.

~ What kind of lifestyle did John lead to match his calling?

- a) Jesus said of him- "not a man shaken with the reed" -a man of purpose

- b John the Baptist was not effeminate-he was not cloth with soft clothing and all the delicacies of this world. Not one entrapped by a delicate lifestyle-1 Cor.6:9. Not a profane person.
- c He was prophet-yea !! more than a prophet- he lived like a prophet
- d John the Baptist received a reward-named as the greatest man that ever lived before Jesus Christ.

Why is it that only the violent take the kingdom by force?

1. War is inevitable for 2 reasons on this side of heaven.

- a) The assault of the enemy -Job 5:7; 41:1; Eph. 6:10-18.
- b) When war is commanded by the Lord, you have no option so God would punish the enemy. Matthew 6:9-11; Luke 10:1-22

2. Why would the enemy assault us? The greatness to which we have been lifted by the privilege of entrance into the kingdom of God is the envy of Satan, however the believers do not recognize how precious it is to be included in this great heavenly plan.

Illustration

Gen. 25: 24 And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like a hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.

Esau was profane. He was a person having or indicating contempt, irreverence, and disrespect for a divine order and sacred things. Esau trade his birthright giving the right of the first born to Jacob for food. He lost the privilege of God being called, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Esau but now the living God is called the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Birthright.

This is a major issue in the New Testament.

1. Jesus is first born of every creature- Col.1:15
2. Jesus Christ is first born in the kingdom of Redemption-Rom. 8:29
3. Jesus Christ is first born of the eternal kingdom- Col 1:18.

Jesus Christ has pre-eminence of all things in the visible and the invisible world.

Now, How about the believers?

1. We are the first fruits of His creature -James 1:18
2. We are the church of the first born- Heb.12:22-23.

It is important that in the realm of the spirit the birthright is not reckoned in order of birth with respect to time but reckoned according to RANK and DIGNITY as it is written in Psalms 89:26-28 and 1Chron. 5:1-2 also in 1 Chron. 26:10.

What does the birthright mean to you? To us in the church it means

1. Position of authority-all authority is delegated to us! Matt 28:18-20, Matt 11:5-6.
2. Priestly service-to approach to God almighty.
3. 3. Double portion of the inheritance belongs to the first born.

Kingship belongs to the church, heavenly blessing and eternal kingdom and eternal life.

It is written: -

Matt 13: 24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

Why would the enemy come and show tares among the wheat? That is war! If what we have is not precious, why would the enemy contaminate it and cause confusion?

Matt 13:31 Another parable put he, forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Notice the issue here and the emphasis of our Lord-the kingdom of God is the greatest anyone could wish for. It is first small and then begins to grow and outgrows everything and all things around it.

Matt 13:33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leaven.

Matt 13:44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

It is important to resolve the phrases Kingdom of God and Kingdom of heaven. The Kingdom of God is the kingdom that is of God and the Kingdom of Heaven is the kingdom that is from heaven.

*Matt 13:45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:
46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.*

Every one of these parables convey heaven's view of the veracity, the greatness and that a reasonable businessman will sell ALL he has to buy or invest into the kingdom because of the Return On Investment-ROI.

Jesus used every opportunity to speak of the greatness of the kingdom. This is the reason Satan has an axe to grind with us.

We take the Kingdom by force!

Matt.11:12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

This is the language of war! Certainly not the war of natural weapons or with flesh and blood. The Lord God almighty teaches His children war.

1. God left some issues for His children to prove them as in the book of Judges 3:1-2. You have to be violent.
2. When the religiously perfect and intelligentsia (the Pharisees and Sadducees) reject this precious call, the tax-gatherers --(who were despised and rejected in those days as traitors and sinners) ceased and possessed the Kingdom of righteousness peace and joy. Lk 7:27-30. You have to violent to make a choice other than dead religion.
3. All hell breaks loose opposing every step we take if you are absolutely determined to give up your sins and evil companions. Your absolution and determination is violence.
4. We need violent EARNESTNESS!!
5. When a city is besieged in the Old Testament, the city wall is surrounded by enemy fire-power-battering rams, arrows habergeons etc., today is done with artillery, air craft bombardments, bombs etc. - and the city is pummeled to submission so as to capture it-the violent in the way take the kingdom by spiritual force.
6. Examples abound in the New Testament of this violence of faith. The woman with the issue of blood is an example. She pressed in and thrust men to take it! She had to push her way through.
7. The 4 men who uncovered the roof to put a sick man right there where Jesus could touch him was a violence of faith.

8. Bartemeus, the son of Timeus-Mark 10:1-52 received his sight when he cried and defied every discouragement and every weight and single demand: that I May RECEIVE MY SIGHT!
9. We see in Matt 3:9 that nationality or familial relationship is not the issue. Luke 7:27-30.
10. We have to be strongly excited! We violently take it by force-they are not lazy wishes and cold endeavors that will produce!
11. The violent are those who are ready to eagerly seize upon blessings of the New Testament.
12. Oh that we could see more holy violence in the church-sloth, lethargy and ease are robbing us Jesus of the reward of His suffering, His glory and the church its success.

In Mark 10:1-52, the Lord Jesus presents several issues of life-

- a. Marriage and divorce
- b. Children issues
- c. Eternal life
- d. Wealth and the dangers thereof
- e. Rewards to them that give all.
- f. Earthly and selfish ambitions.
- g. Death
- h. And blind Bartimeus

This is a very interesting list but the last on this list points to a violent man who ceased on the solution by the violence of faith. Many are too lackadaisical in attitude and mood to take anything by force.

Decisions

1. Acquire A Passionate Eagerness
2. End All Indifference to The Things of the Lord
3. Put on a holy resolution to the things of God
4. "I refuse to use dead formality but apply a living violence"
5. Seek the kingdom and grasp it like John with zeal and press into all that is available
6. The clearer the revelation the more the zeal to pursue the mercy and grace of God.
7. If you understand the greatness of God's kingdom, then nothing but violence of faith will win.

The publicans, sinners, harlots, tax collectors were considered unworthy just as many today who are preachers, children of preachers and high the mighty of religion and academia. The ones considered unworthy possessed the kingdom of God through violent invasion and as bold intruders. What a pity many who started well are no more!

Prayers

All spiritual lameness, vanish. All spiritual deafness, come out. All spiritual slothfulness, go now! All spiritual blindness begin to go! All sluggish spirits come out! Every snail spirits operating with me I command you to go! I recover lost ground in Jesus name.

In Jesus Name. Amen.

The Prophetic Nature of The Hebrew Language

I want to draw your attention the prophetic nature of the Hebrew language. In English, the word LOVE is an abstract word until you provide some explanation and definition, but in Hebrew as you see below, the word is pictorial. You see what the word means in Hebrew. Love means- “God watches over His house and family” The language paints pictures. Can you see God watching over your life, house and family if you are a member of His household? For instance in Jeremiah 17:7-8: “Blessed is the man that trusted in the Lord and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters and that spreads out her roots by the river....neither shall cease yielding fruit”. A blessed person is seen prophetically here in a picture. The person is PLANTED by the waters and spreads her roots by the river! A New Testament prophet was praying for someone who was not doing his quiet time and sees him standing by a river and drinking. The prophet is not aware that the person is not doing his quiet time/meditating in the word. So the prophet knows exactly why this person is not been blessed and bearing fruit. By seeing the pictures, you can prophesy. Such is the Hebrew language when you see the letters and what they represent you can prophesy for that SEASON of time- the day, the week, the month or the year.

FOR GOD'S TEMPLE IS HOLY, AND YOU ARE THAT TEMPLE.
1 CORINTHIANS 3:17

“The Hebrew mindset operating principle is trust in God. When you understand that God has chosen you and is watching over you; you are led into a totally different way of thinking and living, which may seem foolish to the world. Here are some interesting comparisons of these three mindsets:

Basic approach to life:

The Barbarian Mindset believes that force is supreme. Power comes by creating fear.

The Greek Mindset believes the mind is supreme. Power comes through knowledge.

The Hebrew Mindset believes that God is supreme. Power comes from knowing Him”

“How do you get ahead in life?

The Barbarian oppresses others and “wins by intimidation.” The Greeks seek more education because knowledge is power. The Hebrew learns to walk in God’s favor, which is the true key to success.

How do you deal with a thief?

The Barbarian will chop the thief’s hand off. That creates fear and cuts down on repeat offenses.

The Greek will try to re-educate the thief and teach him job skills so he won't have to steal. Of course, he may use his job skills to steal more effectively.

The Hebrew requires the thief to make restitution for what has been stolen and tries to get him saved." If you study these mindsets, you will recognize why certain things happened in world history.

The Roman Empire began as a barbarian society. They were fierce warriors and expanded their territory throughout what is now the Middle East and Europe. When they conquered Greece, something interesting happened. The Romans conquered Greece militarily, but Greece conquered Rome culturally. The Roman rulers adopted a Greek mindset. They ruled with an iron fist, but everyone benefited by it.

Then during the Dark Ages, Europe fell back into a Barbarian mindset, which resulted in the feudal system. Civilization fell apart. The Dark Ages ended with the Renaissance, also known as the Enlightenment; when Europe again embraced the Greek mindset. Thus, modern Western Civilization is built on a Greek mindset.

Today we hear about the clash of cultures between those in the Islamic world and the Western world, but that clash of cultures is really a clash of mindsets. Europe and America both embrace a thoroughly Greek mindset. But Islamic groups, like the Taliban Boko Haram, and others, are ancient cultures built on a Barbarian mindset. They look at things from a totally different perspective.

The Greek mindset assumes the answer to everything is education and democracy. So the West sends educators to change the world. The Barbarian mindset thinks democracy is weak and the Western culture is immoral. So they send out terrorists to produce fear, seeking to instill their mindset on the rest of the world. You can imagine arguing with such mindsets about who is a first, second or third class citizen in a country!

How Mindsets Operate in the Church

During the Dark Ages, the Catholic Church embraced the Barbarian mindset that was operating in the society around them. Church leaders attempted to keep people in line through fear of the inquisition. Their attitude was, "Agree with us or we'll torture you or kill you." The reformation, initiated by Martin Luther, happened at the same time as the Renaissance, when Europe was changing from barbarian back to Greek thinking.

So at the time of the Reformation, the Church embraced the Greek mindset. There were some good things that occurred. The Bible was put into the hands of the people and great emphasis was placed on knowing the Bible.

Unfortunately, the Greek mindset's overemphasis on logic and reason ensnared the church in endless theological debates as they attempted to logically "figure out" God!

"The Church since the Reformation has fully embraced a Greek mindset. (At the time of the Protestant Reformation, the leaders did not choose a biblical apostolic form of church government. Instead, they chose a democratic form of church government.) A Greek mindset cuts us off from the power of God." If you can only flow in what you understand, there are no miracles.

The early Christian church, raised up by the apostles who walked with Jesus, followed the apostolic pattern Jesus demonstrated while He was on earth. The church grew and flourished with great power and signs and wonders operating in even greater measure than in Jesus' days on earth. In 300 AD the Roman Emperor, Constantine, embraced Christianity superficially; but he mixed in the pagan practices of Roman society. The power of the Holy Spirit was quenched and the operation of spiritual gifts and miracles ceased. Eventually, this is what led to the Dark Ages.

God is restoring a Hebrew mindset to the Church today. That means our minds must be transformed. God doesn't want us to walk in fear or pride but rather to trust Him. We must break off our faith in human intellect, so we can draw close to Him and learn to hear His voice and walk in His ways.

Here are two keys to developing a biblical mindset:

1. Meditate on God's Word.

The word, meditate means "to chew on, like sheep chewing its cud." The shepherd takes the sheep early in the morning when the grass is wet and the sheep eats grass but sends it to the upper stomach. About early noon the sheep and the shepherd lay down to rest. Then the sheep begins to regurgitate the grass to chew on it so it would go to the lower stomach. After memorizing the word, you speak it loud back to yourself until God speaks it to you again. You consider how God's Word applies to this situation or how His Word shows you to respond to that issue.

Psalm 1 and Joshua 1 tell us that if we meditate on the Word day and night, continually delight in the truths and promises, are strong and courageous, and do what the Word says to do; we will prosper and be successful in everything we do. Meditating on the Word fills your mind with the thoughts of God. The result is that your mind is transformed.

2. Take every thought captive.

As you meditate on the Word, you then must take every thought captive. That means when a thought comes floating across your mind, you grab onto the thought and ask yourself: What is this thought and where did it come from? What is this thought telling me? You stop and consider what you are thinking.

Many people are held captive by a Barbarian mindset, and they don't even know why. If you think you have to dominate and intimidate someone else to get ahead, that's a Barbarian mindset. God doesn't want you to live in a mindset of fear. He wants you to talk in faith. David expressed faith in Psalm 23 when he said, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life." If you have been living in a Barbarian mindset, I have good news for you. You can repent. You don't have to walk in fear. You can trust and not be afraid. You don't have to stay the way you are. Simply repent and walk in freedom and faith.

Some people have a Greek mindset. Again, catch your thoughts and consider how you are thinking. If you think you are smart enough to get where you need to be, or that your intellect is strong enough to overcome any obstacle to bring you into your destiny, you have a Greek mindset. If you think you must figure out God and get every point of doctrine right, you are sadly deceived. That is a Greek mindset as well.

I used to be that way myself. I knew the Scriptures and had spent many hours studying theology.

So ask yourself: Am I leaning on my own understanding, or am I willing to follow God even if I don't understand what He is doing? Can I receive what God is doing even if my mind is confounded? God will confound your mind to test your spirit. If you have been walking in a Greek mindset, you can repent and change. You can learn to walk in the Spirit. God wants you to have the mind of Christ.

God is raising up a prophetic people who know His voice and walk in His ways! He is seeking a people who will not be pressed into the mold of the world but rather who walk by the Spirit and who do the works of Jesus in the world. So learn to think like the Lord, meditate on the Word, take your thoughts captive, and when you need to repent, just do it. Let God give you His mindset.

New York Times Publishes Christian Testimony About Former Jihadist – With Qualifiers

March 28, 2017

By Mark Ellis —

In the New York Times Saturday Profile on March 24th, journalist Patrick Kingsley introduced a subject that rarely appears in the gray pages of the liberal eminence – a profile of a jihadist who had his life transformed by Jesus Christ.

Even as the Times broke ground with such a daring subject, Kingsley could not help but qualify the remarkable conversion with this: “But these are subjective claims, and many would reject the characterization of Islam as a less benign religion (than Christianity), much as they would reject Nusra’s extremist interpretation of it (Islam).”

It seems Kingsley was shocked when he stumbled upon an Istanbul basement filled with 22 Christian refugees – many of whom were former Muslims.

“It was quickly clear that this was no ordinary prayer meeting. Several of them had Islamic names. There was an Abdelrahman and even a couple of Mohammads. Strangest of all, they jokingly referred to their host — one of the two Mohammads — as an irhabi. A terrorist,” he observed.

Kingsley began to speak with Bashir Mohammad, 25, who had once fought on the front lines of the Syrian civil war for the Nusra Front, an offshoot of Al Qaeda.

While Kingsley noted that some refugees fake their conversion to Christianity for immigration purposes, “Mr. Mohammad’s particular experience, however, does not fit easily into this narrative. He lives in a majority-Muslim country, has little interest in seeking asylum in the West and treads an unlikely path followed by few former jihadis.”

Mohammad grew up in a Muslim family in northern Syria. At 15, he went to hear jihadist preachers and was persuaded by their extreme interpretations of Islam. When the civil war broke out in Syria in 2011, Mohammad initially joined the Kurdish forces fighting for autonomy. He was “traumatized by the deaths he witnessed on the front line, which in turn re-energized his interest in the extremist versions of Islam that he had learned about as a teenager.”

Joining the Nusra Front

In 2012, Mohammad joined the Nusra Front, a group that seeks to establish an extremist state. As a Nusra fighter, he witnessed extreme brutality.

“His colleagues executed several captives by crushing them with a bulldozer. Another prisoner was forced to drink several liters of water after his genitals were tied shut with string,” according to the account in The Times.

Mohammad was willing to accept such horrors because “these people were the enemies of God, so I looked on these executions positively.” When Mohammad went home for New Years in March 2013, apparently his temper frightened his relatives. He became enraged when he witnessed what he believed were blasphemous celebrations — outside the Islamic tradition.

During his leave he isolated himself with his new fiancée, Hevin Rashid. Both she and his parents tried to persuade him not to return to the front line, but he ignored them.

After he went back to the front, something happened that altered his perspective. Through binoculars, he viewed Syrian government soldiers executing prisoners with a bulldozer and concluded there was little difference between their behavior and that of his fellow soldiers. “I went to Nusra in search of my God,” he told The Times. “But after I saw Muslims killing Muslims, I realized there was something wrong.”

Leaving the war

He left the fighting and returned home. After he and Hevin were married, they fled to Istanbul, along with 2.5 million other Syrians exiled in Turkey. Still a fervent Muslim, Mohammad prayed so loudly his neighbors complained. “When are you going to turn into a prophet?” they asked him. He insisted Hevin cover her hair and neck with a veil, and planned for her to wear a full-face covering.

In early 2015, Hevin developed a serious illness. As her health declined, Mohammad spoke by phone to his cousin Ahmad — the same cousin who had taken him to jihadist lectures as a teenager. Ahmad now lived in Canada and had become a follower of Jesus — a stunning turn of events!

Mohammad was even more shocked when Ahmad asked if he could put the phone close to Hevin, so a small group of believers could pray for her. “Horried, Mr. Mohammad initially refused, since he was taught to find Christianity repellent. But he was also desperate, and eventually he gave in.”

Then God displayed his healing power and Hevin improved dramatically within a few days. Mohammad recognized it was because of his cousin’s prayers. Mohammad asked his cousin to recommend a pastor in Istanbul who could tell him more about Christianity. He connected with Eimad Brim, a missionary in Jordan with a group called the Good Shepherd, and the two met together. At the same time, both Mohammad and his wife had powerful dreams about Jesus. In her dream, Hevin saw a biblical figure who used supernatural powers to divide the waters of the sea, which Mohammad viewed as a sign of encouragement from Jesus.

Also, Mohammad dreamed that Jesus, the Bread of Life, had given him food. Both husband and wife felt the love of Jesus in a powerful way through their dreams. When Pastor Brim explained the gospel to Mohammad and his wife, their hearts were softened by the Word and the Spirit, and they were born again!

The journalist for the New York Times met the news of their redemption in Christ with some disquiet: "Exactly why he sought solace in Christianity, rather than a more mainstream version of Islam, no one can quite explain. Reading the Bible, Mr. Mohammad claimed, made him calmer than reading the Quran. The churches he attended, Mr. Mohammad said, made him feel more welcome than the neighborhood mosques. In his personal view, Christian prayers were more generous than Muslim ones."

Mohammad expressed the revolutionary nature of their conversions. "There's a big gap between the god I used to worship and the one I worship now," Mohammad told The Times. "We used to worship in fear. Now everything has changed."

The Lord also softened Mohammad's temperament and he is "much better to be around," Hevin noted. Mohammad now wears a cross and has one on the wall of his living room, where other new believers join him for weekly Bible studies, prayer and worship. Mohammad knows his faith was bought at a high price – the precious blood of Jesus on the cross. As a convert from Islam he may also pay a high price for his faith. But when he faces persecution, he knows he has the greatest protection of all – his trust in God.

STAND UP STAND UP FOR JESUS!

1. Stand up stand up for Jesus! Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner, It must not suffer loss:
From vict'ry unto vict'ry His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished And Christ is Lord indeed.
2. Stand up stand up for Jesus! The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict, In this His glorious day.
Ye that are men, now serve Him Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger. And strength to strength oppose.
3. Stand up stand up for Jesus! Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you; Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the Gospel armor, And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger, Be never wanting there.

4. Stand up stand up for Jesus! The strife will not be long:
This day the noise of battle, The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh, A crown of life shall be;
He, with the King of glory, Shall reign eternally.

The Month of Secrets and Healing

- The Issachar month. See 1 Chronicles 12:32, "The sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do." Compare this with Ephesians 5:15–17 which enjoins us to understand our times. This enables us to keep moving ahead, instead of just passing time. God wants us to see each day, each week, and each month as a cycle of new things He wants to bring into our lives and bless us with. Also, we note that this is year the Lord is opening new doors for us. Anointing of Issachar will help us to see them. There are things we do not know going forward.
- The month of radiance, where light increases (It's spring and the days are getting longer). Just as natural light increases, see that God wants to give you more and more revelation about you and your circumstances. If darkness tries to overtake you, this month you say "no" to it. Declare an increase in prophetic revelation. Isaiah 60:1 says the glory of the Lord will radiate off of us. We need to "light up" this month.
- The month linked with natural healing. God will just heal certain things naturally.
- The month of "I am God, your healer (Jehovah Rapha)." See Exodus 15:26. You will see your snares. The main snare is murmuring and complaining. Note that this promise comes during a time of murmuring. The Healer was manifested to help. When we murmur, we open ourselves up to sickness, and it is as if getting sick becomes scheduled on our calendar.
- The month of the Hebrew letter "vav" [ו]. This is a month that links the Month of Redemption and the Month of Giving. (If you move correctly during this month, the rest of the year connects properly.) Your prosperity is linked with this month. Vav is the tent peg. We can bring heaven to earth. Jael drove the peg into Sisera's head (Judges 4:21). God's judgment was executed through her. Declare God's judgments will be executed through you. I also like the word from Isaiah 54:2, "Enlarge the place of your tent ... and strengthen your stakes." God wants us to stretch out.
- The month of the constellation of Taurus, the bull. The gospel of Mark is symbolized by the ox, and it emphasizes Jesus as servant. Look and observe introspectively to find a place of improvement so that strength manifests. Keep moving—like a bull. Rely on the Lord and keep moving. So, think of yourself as a servant endowed with power from on high to move in the miraculous in order to help people.

- A month to deal with your soul (mind, will, and emotions). Make sure these three things (mind, will, and emotions—don't let negative emotions remain) are aligned with God.
- A month to understand secrets (Issachar). Thank God that He will show you how to do new things this year. Also remember that “the secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him (or He confides in those who fear Him)” (Ps. 25:14).
- The month of thought. God permeates the mind (the thinking process of heart). If our emotions are wrong, we will not be able to think clearly. God will send healing to your thought processes.
- A month of spiritual advice. We need to be prophetic during this time. If we don't exercise our gifts, somebody else will... Prophecy regularly this month.
- The month of the right kidney and conscience (will and thought). Kidneys are linked with emotions, thought processes, and adrenaline processing. Fear affects the kidneys. God starts dealing with our consciences. The conscience is a window between spirit and soul. A clean conscience helps us with revelation. The blood of Jesus flows in us and brings cleansing, even to our DNA.
- Counting Down to Pentecost—Countdown! (Lev. 23:15–16)—it brings expectation!
- I published a book two weeks ago on prayer from Passover to Pentecost—for revival praying. The Lord Jesus rose from the dead and the bible reveals that from resurrection day to the time He ascended was 40 days and on the day of Pentecost revival and an outpouring of the Holy Spirit happened. This was 10 days later. These were 10 days of intense effort in prayer. We must hear His voice and obey what He says, especially during this time. And because it is His time (the countdown to Pentecost), we can expect Him to help us. Thus, we are preparing ourselves for an outpouring and are being “endued with power from on high” (Luke 24:49).
- Prophecy, Prophecy, Prophecy! Iyar—Month of the Prophet
- This second Hebrew month, Iyar, is the month of the tribe of Issachar, “who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do” (1 Chron. 12:32)—thus the month of the prophet. We must emphasize and use our prophetic gifts. Prophecy:
- It is a new day and it is a new time and it is the month of the prophet. “I am increasing the flow from your mouth—and as you increase the flow of what you are prophesying, I will increase the flow of your revelation.” The Lord says, “I say to you prophesy to your mountain. Prophecy to your family, prophecy to your business, prophecy to the problems, and you will receive the revelation that you need. I will show you my secrets. I long to show you my secrets. So, I say to you as you count down to Pentecost—Prophesy! Prophesy! Prophesy! And revelation will flow.”

- Therefore, another part of our counting down to Pentecost is to prophesy—a lot! As we do so, He will release the revelation that we need.

Pray for understanding during this season of Pesach when the first Ecclesia was planted in that city and prophesy Psalm 122 over the territory asking to identify with it as Jehovah would have you do.

MONDAY, MAY 08

The Time is at Hand

So God's Son came to take the punishment for our sins, to save us from God's judgment of hell. That's why Jesus died for us.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."
John 3:16

The Lord Jesus Christ became a human, lived a perfect life and died on the cross, shedding His holy blood to pay for our sins.

They buried Him in a borrowed tomb. There was great sadness. But three days later...

...everything changed! Jesus rose from the dead with tremendous power. He was alive again!*

Billy, your mama believed all this. She believed Jesus died for her sins.

She asked Him to forgive her and she became a new creature.* *She was born again.

Tell Sarah her mama's in heaven waiting for you both to get saved and join her.

I will! But first pray with me, preacher. I believe Jesus, and I'm afraid of hell.

They prayed and Jesus came into Billy's heart.

Billy Gibbs rode home and told his sister, Sarah, all that had happened. She was in shock.

How could Papa do this to us?

Billy led Sarah to Christ and they bonded together. They had a common threat — Papa!

They were waiting for him when he got home.

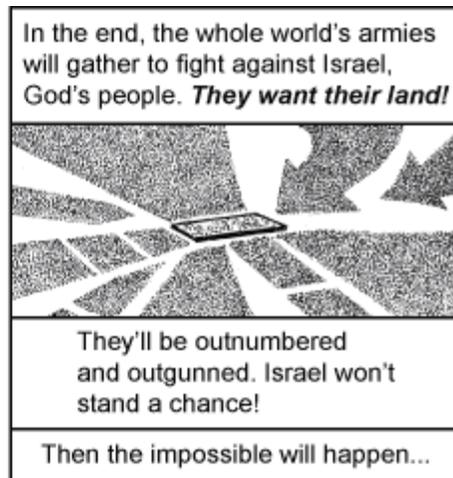

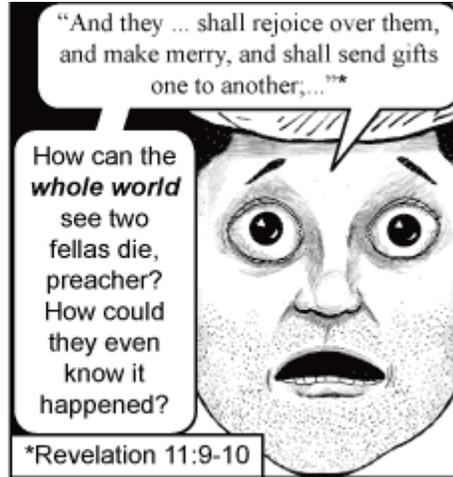

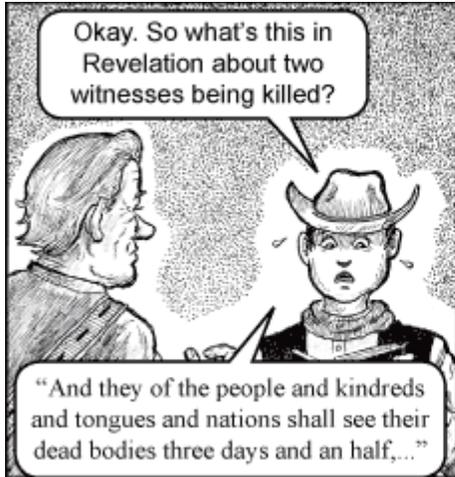

Did you want us in hell? Mama loved Jesus and is in heaven!

Stop it!

people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered

“And he causeth all... to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” Revelation 13:16-17
