

STRATEGIC LEVEL PRAYER
JOURNAL-DECEMBER 2019

THE BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AS A WEAPON OF SPIRITUAL WARFARE

RIGHTEOUSNESS IS A WEAPON OF WAR

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. {flesh...: Gr. blood and flesh} {spiritual...: or, wicked spirits} {high: or, heavenly} 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. {having...: or, having overcome all} 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness.

(KJV)

In the last edition of this journal we laid out how to employ the weapon of truth against the lies of the devil and his servants. As we all well know, our day is inundated with lies from adverts to the news, family, education, finance, sports, many areas of life, even the argument about climate change and governance around the world.

The apostle Paul had laid down in general, (ver. 13), what armour a Christian soldier employs: 'armour of God'. Now, lest any should stamp divinity upon what is human, and make bold to set God's name on their counterfeit equipment, calling that the armour of God which comes out of their private forge, (as many Christians do, who invent weapons to fight the devil God never appointed,) the apostle here describes accurately what this whole armour of God is, describing it piece by piece, which together make up the complete suit, and every way furnish the Christian to enter the field of battle against his enemy. Our fight is not against flesh and blood.

The weapon of righteousness

We now come to the piece of the armour of God called righteousness. First, what is this righteousness? The Scripture speaks of a twofold righteousness; the one legal, the other of Christ.

A legal righteousness is that God required of man in the covenant of works: Rom. 10: 5, “For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.”

This law of righteousness demands an obedience, absolutely perfect, to the law of God. This perfect obedience to the law of God must be personally performed by anyone that is thus righteous. This perfect personal obedience must be perpetual. This law allows no after-game, for if the law be once broken, though but in one wrong thought, there is no place for repentance in that covenant, though it were attended with a life afterward never so exact and spotless. How desperate were our condition if we could not be enlisted in Christ's provision till, we were provided with such a breastplate as this is? Adam indeed had such a righteousness provided to for him; his heart and the law were one. It was as natural to him to be righteous as now it is to his posterity to be unrighteous. Adam had a propensity to be righteous while the natural man in today's world has propensity to do evil. God was the engraver of his own image upon man, which consisted in righteousness and holiness; and he who made all so perfect, that upon a review of the whole creation, he neither added nor altered anything, but said “all very good,”

But Adam sinned, and defiled our nature; and now nature defiles us, so that never since could Adam's plate, righteousness I mean, fit the breast of any mere man. The apostle divides all the world into Jew and Gentile, Rom. 3:9 he asserts “There is none righteous, no, not one.” Not the proudest philosopher among the Gentiles, nor the most precise Pharisee among the Jews; we may go yet further, not the holiest saint that ever lived, can stand righteous before that bar. “Enter not into judgment with thy servant,” saith David, “for in thy sight shall no man living be justified,” Psa. 143:2. God hath nailed that door up, that none can forever enter by a law of righteousness into life and happiness.

Then there is a righteousness in Christ.

Now this also is twofold—“A righteousness imputed” and “imparted”.

The 'imputed righteousness' is that which is wrought by Christ for the believer; the 'imparted,' is that which is wrought by Christ in the believer. The first of these, the “imputed righteousness,” is the righteousness of our justification, that by which the believer stands just and righteous before God, and is called by way of distinction from the latter, 'the righteousness of God,' Rom.3:21, and 10: 3. This is the righteousness, which God hath ordained to be the meritorious cause of the justification of our persons. Now this righteousness belongs to the fourth piece of armour, the 'shield of faith' indeed we find it bearing its name from that grace, Rom.4:11, where it is called 'the righteousness of faith,'

Imparted righteousness is the work produced, by 'a supernatural principle of a new life'

1. By a principle of life, we mean, an inward disposition and capacity, sweetly, powerfully, and constantly inclining it to that which is holy ; so that the Christian, is a co-worker with the Holy Spirit in all actions of holiness : not as a lifeless instrument is in the hand of a musician, but as a living child in the hand of a father ; therefore they are said to be 'led by the Spirit,' Rom.8:14. It is a principle of new life.

2. “You hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses.” The devil comes as an orator to persuade by argument, when he tempts; but the Holy Spirit as a creator, when he converts. The devil draws forth and upon the lusts he finds in the heart; but the Holy Spirit puts into the soul what he finds not there, called in the Scripture 'the seed of God,' 1 John 3:9; “Christ formed in you,” Gal. 4: 19 ; 'the new creature,' Gal. 4: 15 ; 'the law put by God into the inner man,' Jer.31:33 ; which Paul calls, 'the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus,' Rom.8:2-3. It is a supernatural principle, by which we distinguish it from Adam's righteousness and holiness, which was natural to him as now sin is to us and had Adam stood, would have been propagated to us as naturally as now his sin is. Holiness was as natural to Adam's soul as health was to his body.

3. Here is the soil or subject in which the Holy Spirit plants this principle of holiness, “the child of God.” “Because ye are sons, he hath sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts,” Gal.4:6 ; not a child in all his family that is unlike his Father ; ' as is the heavenly, so are they that are heavenly ;' and none but children have his stamp of true holiness on them. As the apostle, Rom. 8:9, concludes, But, ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

Going to war with the weapon of righteousness

Why is righteousness and holiness compared to the piece of armour called the breastplate? The twofold use is one and the benefit we derive from this from this piece of armour is another.

First, the breastplate preserves the most principal part of the body, and that is the breast, where the very vitals of man are closely packed together. This is location where a shot and stab is more deadly than in other parts that are remote from the fountain of life. A man may outlive many wounds received in the arms or legs, but a stab in the heart or other vital parts is the certain messenger of death. Thus, righteousness and holiness preserve the principal part of a Christian, his spirit and soul. We live or die spiritually, yea, eternally, as we take heed to spirit and souls. It is not a wound in the matters of houses and lands and worldly goods, or your bank credit, or any other worldly enjoyment. It is most dangerous and delicate area of the Christian life. We must not allow a spiritual dagger stabs these, and that dagger is sin, which is said “to hunt for the precious life,’ Prov.6.26. This is the dart that strikes the young man “through the liver,’ who hasteth to his lust, ’ as the bird to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life,’ Prov. 7:22-23. Now, righteousness and holiness defend the conscience from all wounds and harms, from sin, which is the weapon Satan uses to give the conscience its deadly stab with.

Secondly, the breastplate, by defending this principal part, produces that unique boldness of the soldier, and makes him fearless of danger, and that is as necessary in the fight the defense of vital parts A dead soldier, slain battle is better than a fearful one!!

Thus righteousness, by defending the spirit and soul, fills the creature with courage in the face of death and danger; whereas guilt, which is the nakedness of the spirit and soul, puts the stoutest sinner into a shaking fit of fear.’ The wicked flee when no man pursueth, but the righteous are bold as a lion,’ Prov.28:1. They say sheep are scared with the clatter of their own feet as they run; so is the sinner with the sting of his guilt. No sooner Adam saw his breastplate taken off, and himself to be naked, he becomes scared and afraid at God's voice, as if he had never been acquainted with him. Never can we recover truly our courage, till we recover our holiness “If our heart condemn us not, then have we boldness with God,’ 1 John 3:21.

Therefore, he who means to be a Christian indeed, must endeavour to maintain the power of holiness and righteousness in his life and conversation. This is to have the breastplate of righteousness, and to have it on also ; he is a holy, righteous man that hath a work of grace and holiness in his heart, as he a living man that hath a principle of life in him ; but he maintains the power of holiness that exerts this vigorously in his daily walking, as be the power of natural life, in whom the principle of life, seated in the heart, empowers every member to do its particular office in the body strenuously. This is the example in a saint like Paul in everyday exercise, “to have always a conscience void of offence towards God and man” Acts 24:16.

As we painstakingly watch over our physical bodies to be in a healthy state, we must also so watch more curiously the health of our spirit and souls, that no unholiness or that which is the only bane of it, might defile it. And truly, we, who come after such examples as has gone before us in the same profession, do bind ourselves to good behaviour by the power of the Holy Spirit, that we will walk holily and righteously as they did.

Before you Pray- Understand God's Attributes

the Names and Attributes of God,
if He is who He is, He will answer your prayers!

JEHOVAH The name of the independent, self-complete being—"I AM WHO I AM"—only belongs to Jehovah God. Our proper response to Him is to fall down in fear and awe of the One who possesses all authority. Exodus 3:13-15

JEHOVAH! M'KADDESH This name means "the God who sanctifies." A God separate from all that is evil requires that the people who follow Him be cleansed from all evil. Leviticus 20:7,8

INFINITE God is beyond measurement—we cannot define Him by size or amount. He has no beginning, no end, and no limits. Romans 11:33

OMNIPOTENT God is all-powerful. He spoke all things into being, and all things—every cell, every breath, every thought—are sustained by Him. Nothing is too difficult for Him. Jeremiah 32:17,18, 26,27

GOOD God is the embodiment of perfect goodness, and is kind, benevolent, and full of good will toward all creation. Psalm 119:65-72

LOVE God's love is so great that He gave His only Son to bring us into fellowship with Him. His love encompasses the world, and embraces each of us personally and intimately. 1 John 4:7-10

JEHOVAH!JIREH "The God who provides." Just as He provided yesterday, He will provide today and tomorrow. He grants deliverance from sin, the oil of joy for the ashes of sorrow, and eternal citizenship in His Kingdom for all those adopted into His household. Genesis 22:9-14 8

JEHOVAH!SHALOM "The God of peace." We are meant to know the fullness of God's perfect peace, His "shalom." God's peace surpasses understanding and sustains us through difficult times. It's the product of fully being what we were created to be. Judges 6:16-24

IMMUTABLE All that God is, He has always been. All that He has been and is, He will ever be. He is ever perfect and unchanging. Psalm 102:25-28

TRANSCENDENT God is not simply the highest in an order of beings (this would be to grant Him eminence). He is transcendent—existing beyond and above the created universe. Psalm 113:4,5

JUST God is righteous and holy, fair and equitable in all things. We can trust Him to always do what is right. Psalm 75:1-7

HOLY God's holiness is not a better version of the best we know. God is utterly and supremely untainted. His holiness stands apart—unique and incomprehensible. Revelation 4:8-11

UPDATE: Chinese Congregation's Defiance in the Face of Regime Sanctioned Church Demolition Pays Off

November 5, 2019

A brave group of Chinese Christians who put their lives on the line for the sake of their church have achieved a major win against the oppressive communist regime. Last Friday, members of Wugaozhuang Church of Guantao in Hebei Province were left horrified when government officials notified them of their church's impending destruction. As Faithwire previously reported, the demolition had been ordered on account of the church, which is state-mandated, not being in possession of all the required permits. But in a risky bid to sway the government away from the action, church members decided to organize a stakeout, refusing to leave the site.

Now, it appears that this brave show of defiance has paid off. After a series of negotiations between parish priests and government officials, an agreement has been reached. "Eventually, the state officials relented and promised to provision the church a new parcel of land and 200,000 Yuan to rebuild a church building upon that land," reported persecution watchdog, International Christian Concern. "The priests have demanded the land be granted immediately in return for relinquishing the present church building, although it is presently unknown whether or not the land promised has been turned over.”

During the stakeout, police reportedly blocked those attempting to deliver food to the faithful inside the building. “Local police blockaded the scene and prohibited anyone from entering or leaving,” a parishioner told UCA News. “Even food was not allowed in to coerce the priests and church members into giving up the protest.” Considering the government’s relentless campaign of destruction against churches across the country, this will be viewed as a win for the embattled congregation, who refused to be cowed by the brutal state forces.

Earlier this month, a 3,000-member church in Anhui province was bulldozed as congregants worshipped. Another church was flattened in Henan province. Do continue to pray for all those who face persecution on account of their religious beliefs.

People, Wake Up! We MUST Protect Our Children from This...

Aimee Herd-Commentary (Nov 8, 2019)

"Conservatives have been warning for years that the ultimate endgame of every fetish, gender identity and sexuality being not merely tolerated but endorsed would eventually be the mainstreaming of pedophilia. We are now not far away from that very eventuality." -Paul Joseph Watson, Summit News

Paul Joseph Watson, writing for Summit News, recently noted: San Diego State University is teaching students that pedophilia could merely be considered to be an alternative "sexual orientation." (Image: Pixabay) The article was sparked by a tweet from Alex Mazzara which included a photo of a class presentation slide entitled: 'Pedophilia as a Sexual Orientation'.

Said Mazzara in his tweet: "An actual topic we discussed in class today at a State University after watching an 8 minute Vice News video showcasing self identified pedophiles. This is going to be mainstreamed." (Image: via Summit News)

It grieves my heart so much that my stomach is turning just thinking about this. Have we fallen THIS far? For those who eschew the possibility of society actually affirming this, I remind them that just last month a jury decided it was ok for the 'mother' of a 7-year-old boy to continue her plan to pump him full of puberty blockers in her effort to make him into a 'girl.' (Fortunately, at the behest of the state's governor, the judge temporarily halted it by allowing the father—who is dead-set against it—an equal say in the matter)

The decidedly pornographic 'sex-ed' curriculum inserted into so many school districts is bad enough, but now they want to remove any protection from our children by allowing—even normalizing—pedophilia?! All to justify the depraved desires of a small number of broken and deceived individuals.

Apparently, this is ALREADY being taught! And so it MUST be stopped! We. Must. Protect. Children. It shouldn't even be an issue. But it IS, so parents, teachers, concerned citizens, legislators; we MUST speak out against this.

\(Here is at least one petition attempting to do halt this sick activity\)

Jesus says in Matthew 18:10, "Beware that you don't look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that in Heaven their angels are always in the presence of my heavenly Father."

And in Mark 9:42, "But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone hung around your neck."

Here's why: "Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a reward from Him." -Psalm 127:3

Watson further warns in his article, "Conservatives have been warning for years that the ultimate endgame of every fetish, gender identity and sexuality being not merely tolerated but endorsed would eventually be the mainstreaming of pedophilia. "We are now not far away from that very eventuality."

Our children and the young people in our society are our future, when we don't protect them, we are destroying ourselves. Let's make this a priority in prayer, and action; pedophilia should NEVER become normalized... it is NOT normal.

Hundreds of Northern Irish Medical Professionals Refuse to Perform Abortions Following Law Change.

By Will Maule

November 1, 2019

Nearly 1,000 medics registered in Northern Ireland are refusing to be involved in providing abortions to patients. The defiant action comes after abortion was legalized in the country in early October, plunging many physicians into a moral dilemma.

Northern Irish doctor Andrew Cupples, who is vehemently opposed to the liberalization of the abortion laws, warned a number of his colleagues have vowed to leave the profession if they're forced to carry out terminations. "Hundreds of healthcare professionals in Northern Ireland will refuse to be involved in abortion services," Cupples told the Independent. "There are even people who are planning to walk away from the healthcare service if they are forced to participate in abortion services."

Cupples has written a letter to the Northern Ireland Secretary, Julian Smith, outlining his concerns. The letter has been signed by 911 of the country's medical professionals. Indeed, it is not just doctors concerned about the sudden law change and its implications. "There are also people in obstetrics and gynecology and midwives who are worried if they do not agree to be trained in abortion they could be forced to do so or reprimanded by their employers or a professional body," Cupples explained, noting midwives and other maternity staff have "no protection" under the new guidelines to object to being involved in abortion services.

According to the protocols issued by the British Parliament, medical professionals who conscientiously objects to being involved in abortions "must raise this with their employer" in the interim period, prior to a public consultation being carried out within the Northern Ireland government. The consultation is due to address key issues such as how far along a woman can obtain an abortion and what procedures will be permitted, along with clearer guidelines concerning conscientious objection.

On the eve of the new laws coming into effect, unionist lawmakers in Northern Ireland launched a last-ditch effort to block the action from Westminster. However, in the absence of cross-party support, there was little to be achieved. Regrettably, the recalled sitting lasted less than an hour and achieved nothing. laws in order to protect the unborn. Despite being a member of the Social Democratic Labour Party (SDLP), the leader of which is pro-abortion, Savage says his pro-life persuasion is informed by his personal experience (his son was born at just 25 weeks and survived). Now, he wants to ensure other babies are given a shot at life, too.

"I believe that my experience is testimony that even with a 20 percent chance of survival, my son was given the opportunity to fulfil his life and has taken it with both hands," he told the Belfast Telegraph. "We would just consider ourselves to be exceptionally lucky and couldn't think of life without him,” the lawmaker continued. “It puts you very close to understanding the whole concept of the miracle of life. What it really does is to reinforce to you the things that matter in life — family and your children are probably the most important things to most people out there.”

Savage said he wanted “to speak up for those parents who are struggling at the moment with a young premature baby.” “I want to tell them that there can be a happy ending here,” he added. Last year, a referendum held in the Republic of Ireland repealed the 8th amendment of the Irish Constitution, which established protections for mothers and unborn babies. Since abortion was legalized, over 600 general practitioners have refused to participate in the procedures. As a result, abortion is only available at 19 hospital facilities across the country.

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

1. Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done, in whom this world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us still in grace and guide us when perplexed;
And free us from all ills, in this world and the next.
3. All praise and thanks to God, the Father now be given;
The Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven;
The one eternal God, whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Pray for boldness among Kingdom citizens to display and share the gospel so that the Great Commission will be activated across the society.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11

- ♣ Lately, there has been so much exposure and disappointment in men/women of God who serve others spiritually in various capacities.
- ♣ Sexual and financial abuse have ranked high, domestic violence and other marital challenges, financial lack leading to many atrocities plague them. Most times we may get lost in the naming, blaming and finger pointing without realizing that these are front liners in a never-ending spiritual war. They don't only carry responsibility for their personal spiritual lives, but they are responsible for the souls of others. They are required to pray for vast and varied challenges amongst their members and for others, deal with territorial issues beyond the scope of their community or even nation.
- ♣ There isn't enough prayer going up for these people whom we consider as the mirror of our spiritual society. Their fall reflects on the Body of Jesus Christ, and it is our responsibility as kingdom citizens, to pray more and complain less about our spiritual leaders no matter what kind of challenge exposes them.

4: ☉ 12: ☀ 21: ☾ 26: ☽

Today @ 5:14a.m is the full moon

- ♣ At full moon, those in darkness gorge themselves with the fullness of the works of darkness and give themselves over and over to the king of darkness.
- ♣ Pray that the children of light will do the same, filling and giving themselves over and over to the fullness of the King of Light. (Eph 1:15-23, Col 1:9-23, Col 2:6-7, 9-13)
- ♣ Pray that the fullness of the light of the glorious gospel of Christ will shine on all men on earth as they hear the preaching, declarations, proclamations and the singing of God's word throughout this season so they will be delivered from the god of this world (2 Corinthians 4:4 ; Isa 61:1-3).
- ♣ Just as the light illuminating the full moon is a reflection from the sun, pray that you will reflect the light of Jesus Christ fully in this season.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13

- ♣ The number 12 is the number of Government.
- ♣ Pray for the nations involved in constitutional reforms as the constitution is one of the foundations of a nation. That which goes into the constitution shapes the nation's direction.
- ♣ Pray that these national constitutional reforms will direct the nation to become sheep nations, righteous nations, and will push these nations into God's destiny for them.
- ♣ Pray that as the nations, work through their constitutional reforms, may righteousness and justice be the foundation of these constitutions. (Pro 14:34).

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14

- ♣ Pray for faithfulness among pastors, starting with those who oversee you, as many as you know by name; and as many as impact you from a distance through media, their books etc.
- ♣ Pray for a quiet spirit among leaders; times of quietness and study in the midst of their busy schedules.
- ♣ Ask that the Lord will do whatever it takes to bring His leaders to a place of quietness, reflection, and the study of His Word, for their own spiritual growth and for their congregations. Acts 6:1-4.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 15

- ♣ If some shady characters get into the government, it is obvious that there are a whole lot of Christians who didn't use their access to stop evil.
- ♣ It is time to demand covenantal judicial intervention from heaven against armed men, including those hiding in uniform and informants giving information of targets to armed robbers and kidnappers!
- ♣ It is time to demand covenantal judicial intervention from heaven! It is time to demand that the very weapons they seek for the destruction of our harvest will blow up in their face first. That is justice, a distinct rod of iron. That is worth praying about.

PLEASE PRAY FOR US! We hope this appeal for prayer and giving finds you well and encouraged in your walk with the Lord. As we approach the end of 2019 it is with great thanksgiving in our hearts for all the Lord has done. As thankful and full of joy as we are for all God has done, as with many other Christian ministries, we are not without our challenges and prayer needs. So, we are also writing to you today to let you know of our expected funding gap for the end of the year, and we are hoping you would prayerfully consider helping us with this.

God continues to move powerfully through the events fields, and it is truly amazing to see lives transformed by Him. He has answered the cry of many who echoed the words of Psalm 71:2, 'In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me and save me!' by bringing His rescue and life where it was so desperately needed. Just at the beginning of November a young man was led to our school at the Fullstature College of the Bible and Missions from the Republic of Benin but while he was waiting for an interviewed, he became restless and suddenly turned insane! And started hearing other voices. Because he was a foreigner in Nigeria, we had the legal obligation to report the matter at the premier University College Hospital where he was given some drugs and dismissed for later attention. This did not go well with us, so we continued in prayer for the young man. I wish to report that he is now free and will be admitted. Interestingly, he a graduate from his home country. This is one story out many this year of mentally sick people who had been healed.

As we near the end of 2019 we are facing a total funding gap of approximately N3.6m across our fields. The accounts department showed me the total amount remitted to our missionaries and staff and I was near totally breakdown sobbing and lack words because the totally amount was less than a single junior teller in any of our local banks would take home every month. We are asking for help seeing the extensive work these missionaries are accomplishing with their wives and children in very humble countryside of the Nations. Some these brethren and Sisters are graduates of universities, Master's degree holders, professionals, and even PhD holders. I feel the burden and heavy responsibility to share these with you that our staff are committed and have made enormous sacrifices without complaints. This amount is needed to fulfil all our commitments to the end of the year such meeting basic needs, family needs, allowances and bills etc.

If you would like to help us with this shortfall and are able to make a donation you can do so securely online by:-

3. Pray that God will frustrate every Satanic plan over their lives, family and the assignment committed into their hands.
4. Decree that no weapon fashioned against them shall prosper.
5. Strip the enemy delegated against them of the enemy's assignments and terminate Satan's commission.
6. Lord Jesus Christ, help them to stay connected to Him through daily reading, studying, meditating upon the word of the Lord and intensive prayers.
7. Ask the Lord to fortify their personal altar with Holy Ghost fire.
8. Pray for them to be sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and be like the children of Issachar, who had the spirit of understanding, to know what to do at every season.
9. Pray for keys that will open the heart of the people at every point in time.
10. Father let the heart of the people be receptive to the word of the Lord like Lydia to believe and be saved.
11. Pray that the people of the field, and the land will cooperate with them to succeed in their assignments.
12. Burundi and East Africa countries are coming up with different laws. All foreigners heading churches and Christian ministries are to choose a new leader that must be a Burundi and handover the leadership of the ministry.
13. Pray for the Admissions staff at the FCBM as they talk and build relationships with potential students.
14. Pray for the future of FMI base and its rapid development.
15. Pray that they may continue to live into the FMI legacy and desire to know and share the power of the transforming gospel.
16. Pray for other administrative staff and service teams of FMI internationally. Pray that God would rapidly enhance each staff member ability, capacity and resilience and live out their callings.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 16

- ♣ Pray for Israel's protection as she continues to reach out to the otherwise hostile nations around when they are in crisis. Proverbs 3:27; 25:21-22.
- ♣ Pray that God will reward the kind actions of the medical personnel who have been selfless in their service to perceived enemies. Proverbs 19:17, Luke 6:35-36
- ♣ There is increasing anti-Semitism against Israel. Pray for the government of Israel especially the foreign affairs department for wisdom, understanding and knowledge to navigate the vital relationship issues between the nation of Israel and some other nations. Prov 24.3-4
- ♣ Proclaim Psalm 83 over Israel and the nations that want to see her downfall and destruction.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 17

- ♣ Ask for unparalleled fruitfulness in the midst of the world's dire economic situation.
- ♣ Pray that you as a believer will work according to the economy of God.
- ♣ Pray that the land where you live will yield her best for you.
- ♣ Pray that God will restore the broken kingdom foundations of righteousness and justice at every level of existence from individual to institutional to national level.
- ♣ Pray that God will revenge every area where injustice and unrighteousness has flourished.
- ♣ Ask that that the institutionalized corruption at governmental levels will be dealt with by God Himself.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18

- ♣ World leaders gather under some spiritual influences. Ought not the church to pray in order to deal with the strong Babylonian system set forth over the nations?
- ♣ This is a season to shake off ignorance and fear of the unknown because knowledge has come, wisdom has been made available to the church of Christ and it has always been in the Bible.
- ♣ "Study to show thyself approved unto God..." is a command to all believers, but this command has been obeyed by a negligible few round the globe. This has resulted in failure in taking dominion over the area of jurisdiction God has assigned each to govern. Are you one of those who have failed to study? Disobedience is costly so repent and seriously take up the areas of study God prompts you to study.
- ♣ Pray for the brethren on earth that God will strongly draw each into areas of study He has ordained for them so they will be effective. (Acts 3:19; John 6:44a)

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19

- ♣ Declare that you are entering into your lifestyle of ever-increasing glory and awe.
- ♣ Pray that your star will rise and shine even brighter. Anything that has hitherto tried to cover your star will be swept away by God's broom of destruction.
- ♣ Pray that God will re-enact the covenant with creation on your behalf. He will speak to the heavens and the heavens will speak to the earth and the earth will bring forth its best for you – with bread, wine and oil.
- ♣ Declare that the land where you are will respond prosperously to your labor.
- ♣ Pray that God will open your eyes so you will see what the devil is hiding from you.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20

- ♣ God never intended the winter season (old age) of one's life to be dry, unfruitful and dreary. God pronounced it fruitful, fat and flourishing. (Psalm 92:14-15).
- ♣ If you are in the winter season of life, it is an exciting time to gather the youth in your field of specialization and pour into them all the experiences you have gathered. Pray for ability to mentor, teach and impart. (1 Tim 3:2c ; 2 Tim 2:24c ; Exo 35:34).

- ♣ Pray that our old men and women will be strong and they will continue to bear fruits for the Lord.
- ♣ Winter is a cold season, a time to share with others those physical things which are needful to the body especially with those who are less privileged.

Today @ 4:49a.m is the last quarter moon

- ♣ The shape of the moon daily determines the difference between the sickles and the bows. The quarter moons are D-shaped moon or its mirror image as a bow.
- ♣ The kingdom of darkness uses the bow-shaped moon to shoot arrows of confusion, death and destruction at the ignorant. Proclaim Psalm 64 over every arrow of the enemy; whether they are spiritual arrows, words, etc.
- ♣ Pray that the quarter moons will praise the Lord in their season and listen only to His bidding.
- ♣ Pray that during the waxing quarter moon, the Lord's covenant portion for His children in this season will wax with the quarter moon.
- ♣ Pray that during the waning quarter moon, there will be manifest, a release of the covenant portion of the Lord for Kingdom citizens in the territory.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 22

Today @ 05:19 is the winter solstice

- ♣ The Winter Solstice occurs exactly when the Earth's axial tilt is farthest away from the sun at its maximum of 23° 26'. Though the Winter Solstice lasts only an instant in time, the term is also colloquially used as Midwinter or contrastingly the first day of winter to refer to the day on which it occurs. More evident to those in high latitudes, this occurs on the shortest day, and longest night, and the sun's daily maximum position in the sky is the lowest.
- ♣ Solstices are opposite on either side of the equator, so the winter solstice in the northern hemisphere is the summer solstice in the southern hemisphere and vice versa.
- ♣ The dates of maximum tilt of the Earth's equator to the sun correspond to the winter solstice in the northern hemisphere and to the summer Solstice in the southern hemisphere. It is also a day when the sun is furthestmost south so the daylight hours in the northern hemisphere are the shortest.
- ♣ The opposite occurs in the Southern hemisphere. The winter solstice marks the first day of the winter season. It is the day of the longest night and the shortest day. That which is physically visible represents an even more real spiritual circumstance. While others may be partying during this season, for some people are going through the darkest stretch of their lives. You may be one of them, or your family, church or nation may be in this dark stretch. Pray that you will learn from the process.
- ♣ The seasonal significance of the Winter Solstice is in the reversal of the gradual lengthening of nights and shortening of days.

- ♣ Declare that even the darkness cannot hide anything before the Lord. Wherever the enemy is using this season of greater darkness to carry out his evil campaign, pray that each of those situations will be light about you, and about all that is yours. (Psalm 139:7, John 1:1-5).

MONDAY, DECEMBER 23

- ♣ Whatever the perpetrators of evil on the earth involve themselves in against God and His people under the cover of darkness, execute the judgment written upon them in Job 18:5-18.
- ♣ If you are experiencing the lengthy season of favor and blessing, ask the Lord to give you wisdom (like He gave Joseph in Egypt), to steward the blessing, abundance and favor so as to be a blessing in times of leanness, darkness not just in your own life, but in the lives of others.
- ♣ Ask God to bless you abundantly so you will be able to be a blessing to others during this season.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24

- ♣ There is heightened spirituality among Kingdom citizens during the festive season.
- ♣ More people attend church, pray and pay greater attention to the Lord during this season.
- ♣ As their hearts are opened and receptive to the Lord, pray that He will reveal Himself in a special way, and bring the true revelation to the church worldwide, on what He originally intended for these dates which the kingdom of darkness took up and used to dedicate to pagan rites.
- ♣ During this festive season, pray that wherever the enemy is calling for your blood, or that of anyone in your family, church or nation; the blood of Jesus which speaks better things than the blood of Abel, will answer on your behalf and stay the hand of destruction until all come to the knowledge of God's truth concerning such a time as this.
- ♣ Pray that the Lord will bring His own revelation to each individual believer starting with yourself, concerning His own purpose for this season.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 25

- ♣ Today is Christmas day. This is the period of time when most of the body of Christ celebrates the commemorative birth of Jesus Christ.
- ♣ Pray that God's word will be preached in the midst of Christmas celebrations. Pray that there will be harvest of souls during this season.
- ♣ Pray that the fullness of the light of the glorious gospel of Christ will shine on all men on earth as they hear the preaching, declarations, proclamations and the singing of God's word throughout this season so they will be delivered from the god of this world (2 Cor 4:4 ; Isa 61:1-3) .
- ♣ Concurrently, many on the enemy's side continue with their sacrifices and offerings of blood to their gods to help them cross over into the next year, consequently there is an increased spate of accidents, catastrophes and natural disasters.
- ♣ Pray for ignorant believers who travel to their villages and expose themselves to the village gods during this time.

Today @ 5:15a.m is the new moon

- ♣ The Lord instructed Israel to blow the trumpet at the time of the new moon. As a God-given instruction, cultivate an atmosphere of praises to Him for what He has accomplished in your life, family, marriage, business, among kingdom citizens and in your territory.
- ♣ Bless the name of the Lord with song ministrations and proclamation of praise scriptures Psalm 108:3; Eph 5:19b
- ♣ As this new moon opens the gate of the new Gregorian year, pray that every opposition, obstacle or hindrance that will rise up against the establishment of the Lord's divine government in the family, church, government/ governance/ leadership, education, economy, media, science/ technology and the arts/ sports /culture should face the full wrath of the Lord Psalm 59:13; Nah 1:2.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 27

- ♣ There have been some shakings and rumblings in the heavens, physical shakings that have come and have made men's hearts fail them, but it is only because God wants to draw the attention of men to HIM.
- ♣ Many homes have been destroyed and many people killed. Pray that people will turn to the Lord Jesus Christ for solace and comfort.
- ♣ Pray that God will preserve His own as these shakings come in the nations. (Isa 26:3,20-21).
- ♣ Where God is sending a warning, pray that God will cause the church to seek Him further for more specific meaning to these events. Pray that nations will take heed (Ezekiel 33:1-5).
- ♣ Pray that indeed people will look up and take notice of God. Pray that this season of great tribulation that has come as an aftermath to the great shakings, the people will return to him and He will restore and re-build their lives (Ezekiel 33:11-16, Isa 26:9, Isaiah 54:8-10).

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28

- ♣ Bring repentance on behalf of the Body of Christ for not being on the forefront in disciplining the youth. They are largely ignored and misunderstood. Now they are considered a menace to society. Psalm 127
- ♣ Pray concerning the rising levels of crime and lawlessness among youth across the nations. They have so much energy and creativity and nowhere to channel it. Only the Body of Christ has the capacity to capture these youth and train them in the way that they should go.
- ♣ Pray that your local congregation, and the Body of Christ will begin to take better interest in the youth and to groom them in the ways and purposes of God rather than the fun, fancy and light entertainment that they are given in most congregations.
- ♣ Pray that the youth in your territory will be strong. Pray that like young olive plants, they shall bear fruit until old age and will continually produce anointing. The young ladies will be like pillars that adorn palaces. They will grow into strong, well grounded adults who can be strong support structure and help mates in their households (Psalm 144:12, Psalm 128).

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 29

- ♣ Ask the heavens to declare the glory of God alone in this season.
- ♣ Pray that as many as will see the heavens display His splendor, they will praise the Lord who created these things, rather than worship the heavenly bodies. (Ps 19:1-2, Deuteronomy 4:19).

- ♣ Practically give away food, clothing, materials, and money to those the spirit of God will lead you to give to, demonstrating your love for them as an act of thanksgiving to God for His love, care and provision throughout the Gregorian year. (Lk 3:11; James 2:15-16).

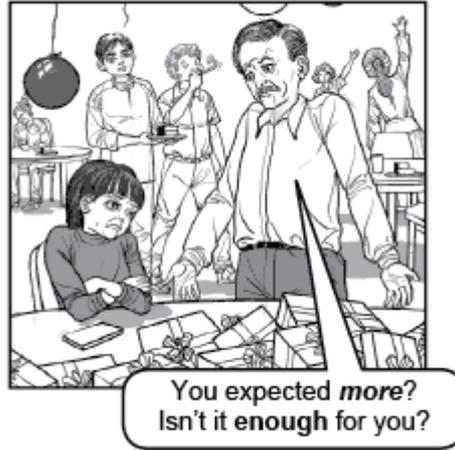

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30

- ♣ As this Gregorian year 2019 is coming to an end, have seasons of praise to Christ who is forever the Savior of the entire creation.
- ♣ The heavens remind us of this most important role that all creation awaited and was so effectively achieved on the greatest altar ever erected at the Cross of Calvary.
- ♣ Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a fresh revelation of the Cross and how to continually and daily bear your cross as you emulate Christ. Pray this especially for every kingdom citizen in the territory 1 Cor 2:5-9, Phil 3:7-12, Col 1:15-22, 5:5-9

- ♣ Today is the last day of Gregorian year 2019. Praise the Lord.
- ♣ Praise Him for all the victories and blessings of 2019.
- ♣ Praise Him for the battles you fought and won in the year.
- ♣ Praise Him for journey mercies on the land, on the sea and in the air.
- ♣ Thank Him for the projects you did in the year.
- ♣ Praise Him for what you are believing Him for the coming year. The Lord is so good. Really good. He is our loving Father.
- ♣ Praise Him, He is our help in ages past and our hope for years to come.
- ♣ 'Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving and declare his works with rejoicing' (Psalm 107:21,22).
- ♣ Count your blessings, see what God has done. It will surprise you what the Lord has done.
- ♣ Happy New Year. Alleluia! Amen.
