

STRATEGIC LEVEL PRAYER JOURNAL-SEPTEMBER 2020

CALL YOUR FAMILY TO PRAYER: THE KING IS IN THE FIELD.

May the Lord grant you understanding of this prayer journal as you pray, consequent upon which there will be changes in your life or your prayer group or family, church, nation and continent and our world.

You may wish to pray in two ways:-

1. You can pray using the whole journal to pray into the womb of September according to the authority level granted to you by your appointment in the Lord. Expect the prophetic germination [as you saturate the ground and the sphere of the life of September with God's ordination] to happen. In any case ensure your seed remains in the ground of September and the rest of the year.
2. You can also use this daily for your prayers to prevail at the gate of each day, especially on critical days of intense warfare in the heavens. Remember that the day starts from 6pm for the next 24 hours. If you are in Britain for instance the time will be early hours of the next day in Hong Kong @ your 6pm.

Pray that your prophetic faculties will be on the rise and be enlarged and sharp...visions; dreams; interpreting symbols; applying parables; riddles; revelation and predictions; accurate delivery of words of wisdom and words of knowledge; intercessions; divine decree to cause the future and many other such faculties.

Many Christians, even the majority of true believers tend to shy away from these realities of visions; dreams; interpreting symbols; applying parables; riddles; revelation and predictions; accurate delivery of words of wisdom.....

CALL YOUR FAMILY TO PRAYER: THE KING IS IN THE FIELD.

Isaiah 55:6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

Ps 32:6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. 2Co 6:2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

The king is usually found in the palace. It takes some protocol and appointments to see the king. If you desire to see a king, you have to learn how to approach the king, he is not casual. You have to understand a certain dress codes. The palace is well secured by guards and mounted troops. In the palace, you are overwhelmed by his estate and the high royal presence of the king! But in this season the King is the field He welcomes everyone and listens to every request from all and sundry. Call your family to prayer.

Your Family Must Pray Together.

By a family, we mean a social group of certain persons, in mutual relation to each other, natural, or civil, who live together under the domestic government of husband, master, or parent. Wherever such a family is, it is the divine responsibility of the governor of that house to set up the worship of God, and this part of worship in particular, prayer in his family. The Jews had their family-sacrifice, Exod. 12:21, which the master of the house performed at home. There still remains a spiritual sacrifice of prayer and thanksgiving, which every master of a family is with his household to offer up to God. The church began in a family, and it is upheld still by the devotion of private families.

Illustration: If the nursery be not preserved, the orchard in time will decay. Some people seek a verse for everything to prove a point, however that which by necessary consequence can be clearly deduced from Scripture, is Scripture, as well as that which is laid down in express terms. 1 Tim.2:8- "I will therefore that men pray everywhere" if everywhere, then surely in our families, where God hath set us in so near relation to one another. Paul salutes the church in Aquila and Priscilla's house, Rom.14:5. And would they not have been a strange church who lived together without praying together? Some families do not pray together. The trust which governors of families are charged with amounts to a responsibility to set up prayer in their families. Every master of a family has the "care of souls upon him ; he is prophet, king, and priest in his own house." First, he is a prophet, to teach and instruct his family. Wives are bid to learn at home of their husbands, 1 Cor. 14:35 ; then surely they are to teach them at home. Parents are commanded to instruct their children; "Ye shall teach them when thou sittest in thine house," Deut. 11:19. And as it is written "Bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," Eph. 6:4.

How is it possible that many servants and children, when they come to be themselves heads of families, are so unable to be their relations' mouth to God in prayer, but because they have in their younger years lived in prayerless families, and were kept in ignorance of this responsibility to pray.

Examples of Families that Pray.

The practice of saints in all ages has been to have a Christlike care of their families. Example is Joshua who promised for himself and his house, that they would serve the Lord. If he meant the inward worship of God, he promised more than he was able to perform, in regard of his family, for he could not thrust grace into their hearts : we must therefore understand him, that it should not be his fault if they did not, for he would use all means in his power to make them : he would set them a holy example, and take care they should not live without the worship of God in his family.

We find Elisha praying with his servant, 2 Kings 4:33, master and man together. We find queen Esther and her maids keeping a private fast in her family, Esther 4:16. Now it would be uncharitable to think, that she was a stranger to the exercise of prayer and fasting, who was so forward to perform the extraordinary, and recruit others also in the same. Surely this gracious woman did not begin her acquaintance with fasting and prayer now and take it up only in her present difficulty.

Cornelius's family faith is on record. Acts10: 2 : " A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always." Please take note he was a devout man, and feared God with all his house. Fear is often put for the worship of God. God is called the "fear of Isaac,” Gen. 30:53- that is, the God whom Isaac worshipped. “Him shall ye fear and him shall ye worship,” 2 Kings 17:36. “And ye shall not fear other gods,’ ver. 37, that is, ye shall not worship or pray unto them.

The Family Collective

A family is a collective body; as such it owes a worship to God. It is he that “sets the solitary in families,” Psa. 68: 6. There are family sins, and these are to be confessed by the family, as well as national sins by the nation. There are family needs, and they require the joint supplications of the family. There are family employments, and these also call for the united force of the family to pull down a blessing upon their joint labours for the good of the whole. ‘Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it.’ And is it not reasonably, that they who are part of the work should join in a prayer for a blessing on their endeavour?

There are family mercies that the whole society share in ; and is it not proper that they which eat of the same feast should join in the same song of praise to the founder? Furthermore, there are judgments that may affect the whole family; and where all are concerns of danger, all should lend their help to prevent it. Note that many hands make light work. A rope twisted of many cords is stronger than those very cords if single and so the prayer of many together is more likely to prevail, because it is likely to be more fervent than of the same persons severally employed on a personal individual level. This does not close the door to individual prayers.

There is one Polanus in history who tells us of a town in the territory of Bern, in Switzerland, consisting of 90 houses, that was, in the year 1584, destroyed by an earthquake, except the half of one house, where the master of the family was earnestly praying, with his wife and children, to God.

Excuses why some Families do not Pray

Some will immediately say “I have no abilities and gifts for prayer, and it is better left to those with the gift or let us leave it undone than spoiled in the doing.” No more had you any skills and ability for your fashion design career, salesmanship, or teaching job, than when you first entered as an apprentice. Apply your mind to the work, bind the responsibility to your conscience, search the Scriptures, where the charge for prayer is laid up, and rules how to perform the responsibility, study your heart, and observe the state of your family, till the sense of the sins, wants, and daily mercies thereof, which you lodged in thy memory, be left warm on your spirit. In a word, exercise thyself frequently in secret prayer; be earnest there for the Holy Spirit and the angels to assist you in your family service, but take heed of driving the Holy Spirit and angels from you, whose assistance you need, by sloth, worldliness, pride, or any other course of wickedness. Up, and be doing, and you may comfortably expect God will be with you to assist and accept you in the work of prayer. Moses was sick of the employment to which God called him, and fain would have put it off with this excuse,— “I am not eloquent, but slow of speech “ but this objection was soon answered, “And the Lord said unto Moses, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind ? Have not I, the Lord? Therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say,’ Exod. 4:11. His call was extraordinary, and his assistance was such. Your call to prayer, as the head of a family, is ordinary, and so you will look for ordinary assistance. God looks not at the pomp of words and variety of expression, but the sincerity and devotion of the heart. The key opens the door not because it is gilt, but because it fits the lock. Let but the matter of your prayer be according to God's mind, and the temple of thy heart humble and fervent, and no fear and God will not shut his child out of doors because he comes not every day in a new-fashioned suit.

Others there are who object not their own weakness as the reason of their not praying in their families, but the wickedness of others in their family. They are confident enough of their own gifts, but question others' grace, and whether they may pray with such. There may be such in your family ; but is this a ground to lay aside the worship of God. By this, the worship of God should not only be laid aside in most private houses, but in all our public congregations. If you will not pray in your family, because a wicked person is present, then you must not join in prayer with a public congregation, because you can never be sure that they are all godly. And neither must the minister pray there, for fear some wicked one should be in the meeting and so this part of Divine worship must be thrown out of the Ekkelesia till we can fill an assembly made up of all true saints, and where such a one ever was, or will be, on this side heaven, no one, I think, is able to tell.

Let us learn to pray in faith without recourse to the unbelief of others because their unbelief will not prejudice your own faith, nor his pride your humility. You may join in duty with a sinner but you have no communion with his sin. You may as well say, if a thief in the time of prayer should pick another's pocket, that all the congregation are guilty of his theft. How much better were it, to fear lest thou pray with a wicked heart in your bosom, than with a wicked person in thy family. Let us pray right now.

Franklin Graham Calls For Prayer March 2020: “Our Only Hope For This Country Is God”

Franklin Graham has called for everyone to join the Prayer March 2020 in Washington D.C. on September 26. With all that has happened in America, he believes that “our only hope for this country is God.”

The President of the Christian disaster relief organization, Samaritan’s Purse, announced the upcoming event through his Twitter. He implored churches and leaders to support the Prayer March 2020. “I’m announcing today that on Sept. 26, I’m going to be in our nation’s capital to pray,” he wrote. “[And] I hope thousands of families, pastors, & churches will join me! Our nation is in trouble, & we need God’s help. Make plans now to come for #PrayerMarch2020.”

I’m announcing today that on Sept. 26, I’m going to be in our nation’s capital to pray—and I hope thousands of families, pastors, & churches will join me! Our nation is in trouble, & we need God’s help. Make plans now to come for #PrayerMarch2020. For more: <http://BillyGraham.org/2020PrayerMarch>

According to the event’s website, the march will start at noon and end at 2 in the afternoon. They will walk from Lincoln Memorial to the Capitol Building, covering 1.8 miles in distance.

America has been through troubling times since the death of George Floyd. His death sparked riots and chaos all over the country. In addition, the country has recorded more than 5 million cases of COVID-19. Graham said in a video message, “America is in trouble. It’s in distress. But we do have hope, and that hope is in Almighty God. And we need to pray now more than ever — more than we have ever done in our lives. Our communities are hurting. Our people are divided. And there’s fear and uncertainty all around us.” He continued, “So let’s join together into the most important thing. And that is to pray.”

Answer to the invitation

Pastor of Prestonwood Baptist Church in Plano, Texas, Jack Graham, responded to Franklin’s invitation. He replied in his Twitter, “I just spoke with Franklin and assured him I will be there. I want to invite every Pastor and church in the SBC and all others who can to join us. Can you imagine thousands of believers praying together for our broken nation? Let’s do it!”

Oppressed Christians Struggling Under Covid

written by ANS Editor August 12, 2020

Orpington, England (ANS) – Oppression and discrimination against Christians has increased during Covid, says Release International, which has launched an appeal to help Christians suffering during the pandemic. The charity reports many Christians have been denied food and relief aid and excluded from support systems during lockdown. They have been abandoned by families because of their faith and refused relief by governments and NGOs.

At the same time, several countries have stepped up persecution against Christians. Release says one of the worst offenders is China, where Christians have been arrested for holding prayer meetings online. ‘The situation has got much worse for many Christians during lockdown,’ says Release International CEO Paul Robinson.

‘COVID-19 is having a devastating impact on the lives of many poor Christians. In places hostile to the faith Christians are experiencing increased hardship.

Release International Covid appeal helps Christians facing discrimination during the pandemic ‘Food is now in short supply. They are unable to work and can’t earn, and support is being withheld because of their faith. Their cries for help are being ignored by local charities who are distributing food packages only to families of other faiths. We can’t afford to delay. These Christians need our help.’

In Algeria, many Christians are suffering badly in the lockdown. There is no social security in the country or government support. Release partners there say: ‘Many Christian families have had to stop work because of the lockdown and have lost their income. They have been rejected by society and their families as a result of their faith. The demand is huge.’ In the words of one persecuted Christian from Afghanistan: ‘Covid-19 is just another difficulty to deal with...’

For Eritreans fleeing persecution, lockdown meant they were barred from refugee camps and unable to get support from UNHCR. Those struggling include Christians imprisoned for their faith for up to ten years, who have suffered trauma behind bars. Release partners say some of these Christian refugees now face continuing discrimination in the camps because of their faith. Many have been disowned by their families for converting to Christianity, so receive no support. And they refuse to resort to crime to get the money and supplies they need.

In Pakistan, where many Christians live in poverty, the situation is especially hard for converts from a Muslim background. The only form of social security is family support. And here too Muslim families often withdraw support for family members who change their religion. Release partners say: ‘These individuals have been rejected by society and their families as a result of their faith.’

Lockdown means many poorer Christians no longer have enough money for food or rent, let alone facemasks or hand sanitizer. ‘The government is not able to support Christians in the villages, slums or brick kilns.’ In several countries, lockdown has led to an increase in persecution.

In Upper Egypt, where Christians come under pressure and discrimination for their faith, some organizations are allegedly refusing food and support to Christian families. Release partners report: ‘The authorities are helping Muslims but not Christians. And churches that try to help are being closed by police order.’

In China, Release partners say the government is using the pandemic to step up its crackdown against Christians. ‘They have accelerated campaigns such as the forced demolition of crosses against even government-sanctioned churches. ‘Pastors have been rounded up for sharing the gospel and distributing facemasks on the street.’ The authorities have ‘totally prohibited’ online church services and prayer meetings: 'nothing constituting a religious service is allowed.' A Christian from Shandong who called for nine days of prayer and fasting for victims of the virus was arrested after seven days, accused of organizing an illegal online prayer service.

In Nigeria, the lockdown deepened the insecurity facing many Christian villagers, who face attacks by Fulani militia. Release partners report: 'Militants used the pandemic as an opportunity to increase attacks on Christians and other non-Muslims.'

Says Paul Robinson of Release International: 'Our partners have verified many cases of Covid19-related persecution and discrimination. And for every example we are aware of, there will be many, many more. 'For many struggling Christians Covid has made things harder. Many have been disowned by their families because of their faith. Right now, it's up to us in the family of faith to give them our support. You can find out more at www.releaseinternational.org/covid Partners of Release International are providing food parcels to impoverished Christians in Algeria, Ethiopia, Egypt, Nigeria, Pakistan and Turkey, who have been locked out of support because of their faith. And through its international network of missions, Release International is active in some 25 countries around the world, supporting pastors, Christian prisoners and their families: supplying Christian literature and Bibles, and working for justice.

“Why Is There a Divide in the ‘United’ States of America?”

Rick Joyner, Fort Mill, SC

“Do you suppose that I came to grant peace on Earth? I tell you, no, but rather division.” –Jesus (Luke 12:51)

Jesus and His apostles spoke often of the need for unity, so why would He say this? Because true unity is usually elusive until divisions illuminate the real and important issues.

Unity and Division

In high school I marveled at how two people would become antagonists, which would usually lead to a fight, and then after the fight they would become friends! In history we see this same thing happening with nations and to competing parties within nations. Divisions often lead to a fight, and then fights lead to unity. One would think there has to be a better way, but we don’t seem to have found it yet.

Those who say America has never been more divided than we are today do not know our history. It has been worse at times. We have had many fights, which would be followed by a new level of unity and a great advance. Being such a divided nation is actually a reflection of being a free nation, where people can express themselves and care enough about what they believe to fight for it.

Granted, the more serious the fight the more dangerous it can be. Even so, isn’t it interesting that the Southern United States, which caused a civil war by seceding from the Union, now seem to be much more patriotic for the Union than the rest of the country is?

It is also noteworthy that the basic divisions we are clashing over at this time have not changed since the Revolutionary War. During the War for Independence, there was roughly about 30% of the population for independence who were considered liberals, 30% remaining loyal to the British crown who were considered conservatives, and 40% that could go either way. In some basic ways, the Revolutionary War was a civil war. Some of the battles during that war were Americans fighting Americans. At the important Battle of Kings Mountain, there was only one British soldier on the entire field. (Photo via Wikimedia Commons)

After American independence was won and the Constitution ratified, it was said that the next ten years were one long shouting match. This calmed down from time to time, but we are still shouting at each other over some of the same issues.

Why Is There a Divide in the “United” States of America?

So, how is it that we call ourselves the “United” States of America?

Going back to the beginning when there were just two brothers on the entire earth, we see that they could not get along. People have always had trouble getting along. To be united around almost anything is an accomplishment. In spite of our continued divisions on many issues, overall Americans have been remarkably united on most issues for most of our history. This is even more remarkable for a people with the freedom to express themselves. Throughout history, almost any unity was only possible where it was forced by the suppression of dissent.

If Americans are actually in unity about most things, why does it seem that we are divided about most things? To a large degree this is the result of the media. Media is driven by controversy, and it is its nature to only cover the extremes of life. It has to. Who is going to watch the news that covers the average family having an average peaceful and quiet day? However, the real America is much more reflected in the average than the extremes.

During the times leading up to the American War for Independence, the most common way Americans got their news was from the pulpits on Sunday mornings. Even during World War II people got much of their news about the war from newsreels shown before the movies at the theater, or they listened to it on the radio at night. Today, the news is constantly on the television and even on our phones, so it seems even more like nothing but the extremes are happening all the time, but it is not so.

The point is, most of the people who are making most of the noise that is loud enough or exceptional enough to make the news are less than 1% of the population. They are not the real America, or the real world. It might help if we changed the name of “news” to “extremes.”

Even so, we need to understand why the divisions in America are about the same things, and remain at about the same level as they did in 1776. There are still roughly about 30% on the left, 30% on the right, and a remaining 40% somewhere in between. From the 30% on the right or left there is a tiny percentage that can be hyper and loud, but they are rarely a reflection of most of those in their camp. The extremes on either side may be Americans, but they are not American as much as they may claim to be.

Our national bird is the eagle, and an eagle needs both a right and a left wing to fly. The general division of America into the 30% on the left and 30% on the right is necessary for flight, and the debate is healthy unless the weight on either side starts to move toward the extreme end of the wing. If the weight on either wing moves to the extreme end, we will quickly go from not being able to fly straight to not being able to fly at all. (Photo via Unsplash)

America is the longest surviving republic in recorded history by about one hundred times. The longest any previous republic lasted was just a few years, but the American Republic has lasted for nearly three centuries. Over this time, the country has drifted to the right and to the left at times, but to date has always been corrected before going too far. However, since the Great Depression each swing to the left has gone further to the left, and the corrections back to the right have not been making it back to the center, so the trend has been to the left. We have now moved so far to the left that John Kennedy would be considered a conservative today. Most who are conservatives today would have been considered liberals in the Kennedy Administration.

Even more concerning than the constant bending to the left has been the constant eroding of the authority of the Constitution. The three branches of government have drifted further from their Constitutional lanes and are crashing into each other with increasing force. As the saying goes, “If you do not change your direction you will end up where you are headed,” and where we are headed right now is not where we want to go.

“A nation which can prefer disgrace to danger is prepared for a master, and deserves one.” –Alexander Hamilton

“I love the man that can smile in trouble, that can gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection. ‘Tis the business of little minds to shrink; but he whose heart is firm, and whose conscience approves his conduct, will pursue his principles unto death.” –Thomas Paine

MY FAITH HAS FOUND A RESTING PLACE

1. My faith has found a rest-ing place, Not in de-vice nor creed;
I trust the Ev-er-liv-ing One, His wounds for me shall plead.

*I need no other argument I need no other plea
It is enough that Jesus died And that He died for me.*

2. Enough for me that Je-sus saves, This ends my fear and doubt;
A sin-ful soul I come to Him, He'll nev-er cast me out.
3. My heart is leaning on the Word, The written Word of God.
Salvation by my Savior's name, Salvation through His blood.
4. My great Physician heals the sick, The lost He came to save:
For me His precious blood He shed, For me His life He gave.

Today @ 9:28 a.m. is the last quarter moon

- ❖ The quarter moons are physically observed in the sky to be D shaped or its mirror image. The occult uses them as spiritual bows to shoot awfully specific disastrous words as arrows against the righteous and also into nations that result in marital confusion, unimaginable challenges in the lives of the righteous, riots and upheavals in nations.
- ❖ This is a period when the occult increase their enchantments, strength, and fortification; they also reap the gains of the righteous who are ignorant. They are able to do these things by using the crescent moon as a spiritual sickle.
- ❖ Ask God to overthrow the acts of the wicked against the righteous just as He overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah (Amo 4:11a)
- ❖ Pray that God who sees them and the evil of the things they do will shoot His arrows into them, and let the poison drink up their spirits and His terrors set themselves in array against them unless they repent and return to Him. (Job 6:4)

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

- ❖ If all of the Lord's authority is in the Ecclesia – and the nations are in turmoil, then there is something wrong with the governors of the earth.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to visit the Ecclesia and bring circumstances that will rock us into realization that we are His government, the nations depend on us to steer them in the right direction. (Isa 9:6)
- ❖ Most of the time, the church gets lost in partisan activities when it comes to choice of national leaders. We forget that we have the authority to steer the Lord's man into the direction He will have them go.
- ❖ As you pray for the leadership in your nation, whether you chose them or not, pray that God will direct the heart of your leaders in His own course, so they fulfill their destiny in this season. Remember the heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord. The Lord's hand is on His Body the Ecclesia. (Pro 21:1)
- ❖ Pray for nations preparing for election that God will raise men and women in such nations who will pray to know the heart of God for their nations and travail until such leaders are appointed.
- ❖ Pray that the Lord's appointed leaders will arise in this volatile season.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

- ❖ This year started with the covid 19 pandemic. More than 21 million people have been infected and thousands have died of the virus worldwide. Many businesses have closed down and many have lost their means of livelihood. Crime rates increased. Prices of goods shut up.
- ❖ There have been protests in many countries, plane crashes, earthquakes, shootings, bombings, tornado flooding etc. which indicate that the Lord wants to draw the attention of the world to HIM.
- ❖ Pray that people will turn to the Lord Jesus Christ for solace and comfort.
- ❖ Pray that God will preserve His own as these shakings come in the nations. (Isa 26:3,20-21).
- ❖ Pray that this will be a season when many will search their lives and realize the futility of the temporal physical things amassed and begin to thirst for the eternal things of the Lord.
- ❖ Pray that many will return to the ancient paths of righteousness which made the US rise to become a superpower for the past over 100 years. (Jeremiah 6:16a, Matt 6:19-21).

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

- ❖ Where God is sending a warning, pray that God will cause the church to seek Him further for more specific meaning to the events around the world.
- ❖ Pray that nations will take heed (Eze 33:1-5).
- ❖ Pray that indeed people will look up and take notice of God.
- ❖ Pray that this season of great tribulation that has come as an aftermath to the great shakings, people will return to him and He will restore and re-build their lives (Eze 33:11-16, Isa 26:9, Isa 54:8-10).
- ❖ Pray that the body of Christ will understand the sign of the times we are living in and equip the saints appropriately in the face of sudden events.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

- ❖ The theme that runs through matters of culture has to do with worship. This season is one in which a lot of cultural events take place. These are forms of worship to various deities.
- ❖ Make a deliberate effort to create an atmosphere of praise and worship as part of your lifestyle by: singing, playing relevant gospel music, reading the Bible especially the Psalms out loud thus creating a throne for God. (Ps 149, Ps 22:3)
- ❖ Pray that any occult festivals slated for this month which would in any way be a setback on the church of Christ, your family and nation in a negative way will be avoided.
- ❖ Pray that the influence of those which have already passed, will be made manifest in these coming days. Then ask the Lord what He would have you pray, in order to stand in the gap effectively for the body of Christ in your region, your family and nations.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

- ❖ Stand on Psalm 91:10-13 and decree that no evil shall befall you and that no plague shall come near your family, receive angelic protection and abort the hidden plot and plans of the enemy against you.
- ❖ Ask the Lord to make you a blessing and use you to help someone that is in need.
- ❖ On a regular basis, proclaim Isaiah 40-49 to contend with every deity that endeavors to raise themselves above the knowledge of the Lord – those gods are not God and they will utterly fail in every generation,

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

- ❖ Pray against the use of the media to be used for negative ungodly agendas.
- ❖ During the dark ages, truth was found amongst monks in monasteries, and there Scripture was preserved, music was composed and arts were developed which glorified the Lord in the midst of the darkness. It was out of those monastic walls that Martin Luther came out with the truth that brought the reformation and a turning around of every vice through Media.
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will raise media apostles, who will help to spread His truth against the lie.

- ❖ The truth always prevail in every generation, and the false policies are always overturned for righteous ones. It will be the same in our generation and the generation of our children.

The 10 days of awe that follow the Feast of Trumpets are days of ever-increasing praise and worship to Jehovah. They are days when you acknowledge more and more the awesomeness of Jehovah. It prepares people to see their sin for what it is before a Holy and Awesome Jehovah when they come to the day of Atonement. Take time to have days of worship and praise to Jehovah. Up! O God be the judge of your cause; keep in mind the bitter things which the man of evil behavior says against you every day. - ❖ A C shaped moon or its mirror image is a crescent; The occult use the crescent moon as sickles (e.g. Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant. - ❖ When the inner man of the members of the ekklesia is fed daily with the word of God, it grows and is strengthened and fortified by the spirit of God. This is the reason why no member of the ekklesia's life should be dependent on bread or food alone but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God (Eph 3:16; Mat 4:4; Lk 4:4)
- ❖ As a bonafide member of God's elect on earth, it is mandatory for you to continuously feed on the word of God for strength and fortification; so seriously take up this challenge by prayer and supplication to God for help and pray for your family and the rest of God's people the world over that each one of them will do the same. (Eph 6:18; Jeremiah 15:16; Job 23:12).

- Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
- ❖ Praise Him because you are entering the last quarter of the year 2020 in victory. PRAISE YE THE LORD. ALL

God had sent the children of Israel to Egypt to save them from starvation.

But a new Pharaoh hated them... and made them slaves.

400 years later, there were 3 million of them. Pharaoh became afraid.

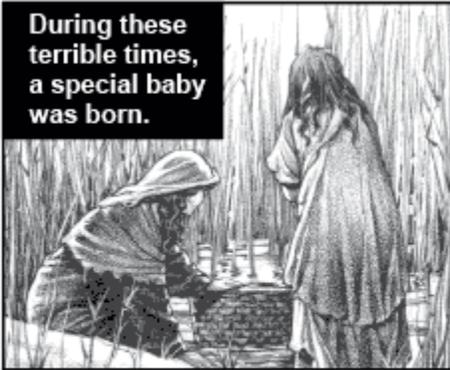

Yes, Divine one. Not one man child escapes alive.

Pregnant mothers lived in terror of delivering a son.

Page 3

During these terrible times, a special baby was born.

To save his life, his mother put him in a water-proof basket and placed it in the Nile River.

Pharaoh's daughter found the baby. She loved him and raised him as her own. She called him...

Page 4

As Moses grew up, he hated how the Egyptians treated the Jews.

One day he killed an Egyptian for hurting a slave.

So Moses had to flee for his life!

Pharaoh never dreamed that God would someday send Moses back... to destroy Egypt!

Forty years later Moses returned with a message for Pharaoh...

Pharaoh sneered when Moses said God was going to hit Egypt with plagues.

“Thus saith the Lord... Let my people go.”

“Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice?”

Each plague would wipe out one of Egypt’s many false gods.

Plague #1 hit! When Moses plunged his rod into the Nile River (one of Egypt’s main gods), all the water in Egypt turned into blood.

“And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.” The Egyptians were terrified!

Page 7

The 2nd Plague They worshiped frogs, so God covered the land with them.

Pharaoh promised to let Israel go if Moses got rid of the frogs.

They even got in bed with Pharaoh.

Dead frogs were piled in heaps, and the land stunk. But Pharaoh refused to keep his word.

Page 8

The 3rd Plague Because they worshiped lice, God turned the dust into lice.

Pharaoh's magicians turned water into blood and made frogs appear. But they couldn't bring forth lice.

"This is the finger of God."

Scratch Scratch

I can't stand it!

But Pharaoh dug in his heels again.

Page 9

The 4th Plague The Egyptians also worshiped flies.

Swat Swat

Where's Moses?

But there were no flies where the Israelites lived.

So the land was covered with flies.

Page 10

The 5th Plague Their sacred cows were also gods.

But Israel's herds were spared.

I hate Moses!

This plague wiped out all their cattle, horses, sheep, camels and oxen.

By now the Egyptians knew that God was with Israel.

Page 11

The 6th Plague
Boils broke out on all the Egyptians.

But Serapis, the goddess they prayed to when they had boils, could not help them.

The 7th Plague Hail, mingled with fire, fell from heaven.

Even Nut, the Egyptian god of the sky, left when Christ wiped out their crops.

Page 12

The 8th Plague Even their locust god turned against them.

Chomp
Chomp

Egypt is ruined!

Anything the hail didn't destroy, the locusts finished off.

The 9th Plague Darkness that could be felt covered the land for 3 days and 3 nights.

Moses?
Where are you?

This plague shot down Horus, their sun god. But Pharaoh still refused to let Israel go.

Page 13

God told the Israelites to borrow jewels, silver and gold from the Egyptians.

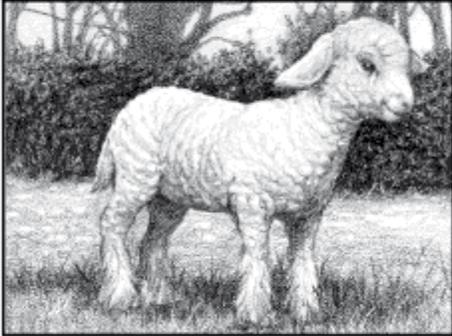

In fear, the Egyptians gave away all their wealth.

The last plague would destroy Egypt... and deliver Israel.

“For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite (kill) all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.”
Exodus 12:12

But God told Israel how to protect themselves from this last plague.

Every home was to kill an unblemished lamb. It would be the "passover lamb."

The blood of the lamb was put in a basin. The life of their firstborn depended on strict obedience.

Then came the most important step.

Page 15

The blood was to be put on each door post to protect that home.

"...when I (Jesus) see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you..."

There was a great cry, for not one Egyptian house was spared.

Page 16

Pharaoh finally gave up!

After 400 years, Israel was free, just as God had promised.*

Jews still celebrate the Passover, in remembrance of this mighty deliverance.

*Genesis 15:13-14

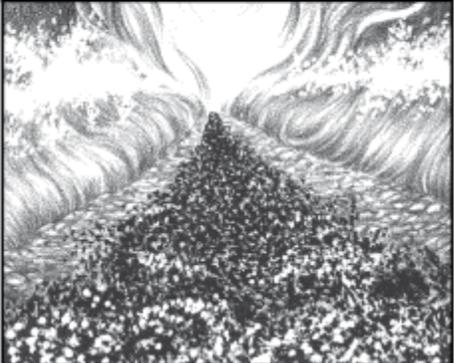

Page 17

As they marched to the Red Sea, Pharaoh changed his mind... and sent his army to slaughter them.

But God stood between them as a fiery pillar, holding back the army.

God parted the Red Sea and Moses led the people between the walls of water to safety.

Page 18

As Pharaoh's army closed in, God released the walls of water, and Pharaoh's army drowned. The might of Egypt was gone!

Egypt was ruined because it rebelled against God's Word. "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." Psalm 9:17

Page 19

Will God "pass over" you on the terrible day of Judgment?

Your ONLY protection will be the blood of Jesus Christ.

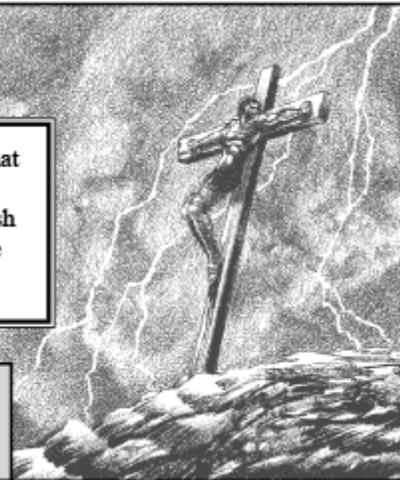

The Creator of the universe, Jesus Christ, came to earth to die for you.

Page 20

Jesus shed His precious blood (God's blood) to wash away your sins.

"For God so loved the world (that's you), that he gave his only begotten Son (Jesus), that whosoever believeth in him should not perish (in the lake of fire), but have everlasting life (in heaven)." John 3:16

The Lord Jesus was buried, rose from the dead and ascended back up into heaven. He is coming again in power and glory.

Page 21

Lord, I'm a sinner. Please wash away my sins and save me.

On Judgment Day, when God sees His blood, He will "pass over" you, and will say...

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."^{*}

*Matt. 25:21

Page 22

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU. TRUST JESUS TODAY!

1. Admit you are a sinner. See Romans 3:10
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent). See Acts 17:30
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. See Rom. 10:9-10
