PROPHETIC

-Defeat The Enemy And Advance

TAKING HEED ACCORDING TO HIS WORD

For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: 1Thess 2:13-14.

Many people today become so familiar with the word of God that they receive it as the word of men. The Lord made me to know that this has made Him very sad. The Lord said His altar has become mixed and the voices of true and false prophets are sounding off from same podiums and his sheep are confused. But the Lord is sending this message so that you can take heed to yourself. You must begin to account to the Lord what you hear and how you receive the word of the living God.

My experience has been that a lot of people hear God's word as the word of a man. We have many examples in the word of God on how people received the word of the Lord or otherwise hardened their hearts against God. The first example we will give here is Judah.

Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. Jere 44:14-17.

This is the problem everywhere: anything that is pragmatic that can bring food and wealth and earthly temporal success that is what they want their prophets to utter.

And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them. Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. Acts 17:32. The Epicureans, the Stoics called Paul the apostle a babbler. The Athenians met on Mars Hill to tell or hear some new thing. Their attitude was mockery and delayed decisions and the consequences were grave. Paul departed from them.

The Right Attitude

The hearers of the word need to be aware and messengers of the word need to be aware that the word of the Lord is pure and it is being receive and to be received.

Acts 2:41

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

They gladly received the word of God. This is the right attitude. Some do not have this attitude but contrarywise are unhappy or slow or grudgingly receive the word of God consequently Satan comes immediately to take the word away from the heart.

Cornelius sent for Peter to hear the word of God. He was prepared with His whole house-Acts 10:22-32. And V.33. Can you imagine the place of fellowship you go to, how early do you arrive? A place you sit at the back wondering when the service will be over. . A person who refuses to open his bible to read along and personally hear God has lost the gladness to receive the word of God.

The Gentiles received the word while the Jews rejected the same (Acts 13:42-49). Lydia was another person who received the word of God with gladness. The Lord opened her heart to attend to those things that were spoken of Paul. Acts 16:14

And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

It said of the Bereans that they were more noble and that they received the word of God with ALL READINESS OF MIND.(ACTS 17:11).

Three times people that valued the word of the Lord considered the people that brought the word as “an angel of God” Mephibosheth received David as the angel of God (2Sam.19:27), so also Achish (1 Sam 29:9) and the woman of Tekoa (2 Sam.14:17). The people that have benefited immensely from the word of God have been because of the zeal, the readiness of mind and the honour which was given the word and the people that brought the word. Galatians received Paul in like manner. Galatians 4:14

And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

Faith Comes by Hearing the Word

The word of God is the utterance from God of a living voice. The priest utters the sayings of God, the decrees, the mandate, order or commandments. They bring the moral precepts. These are the oracles of God- a sound produced by the voice with meaning.

The word of is substance and scripture says all flesh is as grass-that is it is corruptible. The glory of man- opinion, judgement, estimate, his praise, his honour, his splendour, brightness, excellence, dignity and majesty is as the flower of grass. And the grass withers and flower fades away they are corruptible-they perish. The word of God abides for ever. (Isa. 40:6-8; 1Pet1:23-25)

The word of God in time remains, continues, does not depart, continues to be present, continues to last. The word of God in state or condition remains as one, not to become another or different. The word of God waits for you.. It lives beyond persons and survives them.

The word of God is in perpetuity of time and eternity and is proclaimed by the living voice of God's servants.

When God wants to work the first thing He does is speak and we MUST then take heed according to His word. Those that have ears let them hear.

Blessings for the Hebrew Month of Kislev
The Ninth Hebrew Month of 5779, Nov. 9 to Dec 8, 2018.

PROPHETIC REVELATION for YOUR WARFARE STRATEGIES

-Defeat the Enemy and Advance.

When January and February were added to the Roman calendar the name for November was not changed. That is the 11th month in our Gregorian Calendar. “Novem.” means 9. And also, the 9th biblical month is November counting from Passover.

This period, in the natural reflects things drying up. In West Africa we have the dry season and Harmattan, leaves are drying up, there is much dust the North and in the Northern Hemisphere, the Fall sets in and leaves turn yellow and the night is longer than the day. The day is shorter and it is like God is saying “time to sum up the season and rest.” Following the harvest rain the system goes back in a circle to re-calibrate.

However, it is a period of high spiritual activity from the scriptural perspective. We observed in the past that most believers do not pay attention to timing of events. They pass on until they miss their time and season. The prophet Daniel warned us that the powers that be will “change times and seasons”. They will manipulate time and the seasons. However, the Lord wants His children to be alert and current. This is the reason we spend time, money and serious effort to get this journal to you every month. God’s Calendar runs on a monthly basis as far back as Genesis 1:14-15. Please understand that life is not straight forward from A to B but life run in circles. You have to learn to navigate your way around obstacle, like mountains, rivers or valleys. You have to blast rocks and tunnel through, fly over or pass under or circumvent as you move on never stopping in your advance by faith.

In the last season, we were contending for the anointing. This season is to harness or gain prophetic strategies for your warfare and defeat Satanic plans-defeat your strongman!

Things that pertain to this season of November	Steps You Can take in prophetic prayers	Your Notes and Comments (Testimonies)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A month to develop your warfare strategies, and a month to have 	Now pray and press in for prophetic revelation for strategies. Genesis 49:27 states, “Benjamin is a	My comments as an example-Prophesy over your life:-

(Psalm 127:4) God, the Archer, shot me forth like He shot forth Moses to lead Israel out of Egypt, and shot forth Joseph into Egypt to make Egypt the food basket of the world in the time of famine, therefore, as a true child of God I cannot be ordinary. With such knowledge for a fact, I’m an arrow shot forth from the womb of God and my life changes radically.” May the Lord help you to know that you are an arrow in the hands of a mighty warrior.
A month to enter into a new level of trust and rest. Move ahead with that new anointing and allow the Lord to develop new levels of trust in you. Peace and faith operate together.	Psalm 25:14 states, “The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him, and He will show them His covenant.” We need to believe that if we tap into God and what He commands (e.g., being thankful in all things), then we can overcome any obstacles. For example, if you are feeling financial pressure, make a point of not worrying, but deliberately choose to be thankful instead. See 1 Thessalonians 5:18 and Colossians 3:17.

This is the implication for the New Testament believers.

A month to review your support system. Whom do you support? Who supports you? Who are your friends?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. You must “war” to have peace. This Biblical concept is very important to recognize. Peace will not just happen;	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We have to choose to stand in faith, joy, and thanksgiving. Again, we must develop trust and confidence.
Warfare is not just battling the chaos around you. Rather, you must be on the offensive, seeing the conflict and having peace in the midst of it.	Be on the offensive.

The month of dreams. The Lord has been “piling up” things throughout the year; now He releases that revelation during the night. You may have to let God heal you of some trauma so you can sleep better.

1. Ask the Lord to heal you of any event that jolted you so badly that you changed your good conduct in the Lord and now trust in your own wisdom.
2. Ask God to reveal areas you have been hurt and need healing. Areas that need mending.
3. Call the lost dreams to come back!!!

Some dreams are just God replaying a memory of something. If needed, ask the Lord to heal you of that trauma and He will. We know from Psalm 127:2 that “He gives His beloved sleep.”

4. Read Job 33.14-17
This is a season that creation prepares for hibernation in the northern hemisphere? A time to retreat and meditate, plan and dream into the days (2019) to come. Pray for Jehovah-given dreams, visions concerning His plan for your life, family, the Ecclesia and territory in the days to come.
5. Participate in various types of fasting as a way of waiting upon the LORD where possible.

Toronto Hospital Releases Assisted Suicide Plan for Kids, May Not Even Inform Parents

October 17, 2018

A group of medics from a Toronto children's hospital have released a shocking paper which outlines its controversial position on child euthanasia. In the paper, published at the British Medical Journal, Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children revealed that in some cases, the young person's parents will not be notified of the intention to end their own lives until after the death is confirmed.

"Usually, the family is intimately involved in this (end-of-life) decision-making process," the pediatric doctors, administrators and ethicists noted in a Sept. 21 paper published in the BMJ. "If, however, a capable patient explicitly indicates that they do not want their family members involved in their decision-making, although health care providers may encourage the patient to reconsider and involve their family, ultimately the wishes of capable patients with respect to confidentiality must be respected."

In the east-central Canadian province of Ontario, parents are not required to be involved in any "capable" child's decision to end their own life.

It is a terrifying prospect – that a child could choose to engage in physician-assisted suicide without the involvement of their own parents. Obviously, this has caused grave concern among certain ethicists and pro-life researchers.

“It is not difficult to imagine how such a protocol could wreak havoc on society,” commented Monica Burke, a research assistant in the DeVos Center for Religion and Civil Society at The Heritage Foundation. “When a culture differentiates between lives worth living and lives worth ending, the consequences to vulnerable populations—the young, the old, the sick, and disabled—are disastrous.”

Burke added that, as a result of the twisted and dark progression of euthanasia legislation, “those who most require our compassion and protection become the most likely to be pressured to prematurely end their lives.” We can be sure that a truly heinous cultural moment has arrived when children are offered “suicide assistance” instead of “suicide prevention.”

The scholar noted that this Canadian hospital’s ethically bankrupt policy is a clear-cut signal that there is now “no natural, logical limit to who qualifies for physician-assisted suicide.” Assisted suicide is on its way to becoming utterly indiscriminate, with little legal constraint and a subsequent whittling away of the sanctity of life.

But despite Canada’s insatiable penchant for liberalizing euthanasia laws, a damning study published by the Canadian Institute for Health Information revealed that a mere 15 percent of dying Canadians have access to quality palliative during the last year of their life. Indeed, it is clear that the legislative emphasis has been placed on the ending of life, rather than the sustaining of it.

“We all know that in Canada, an ER visit for a frail elderly person (the main clientele for palliative care) means lying on a gurney in a hallway for hours,” wrote André Picard at Canadian newspaper, the Globe and Mail. “That is the last place a dying person – often confused, incontinent and in pain – should be. This kind of humiliation is untenable and we should be ashamed at how commonplace it is.”

Earlier this year, a leading American bioethicist backed a Dutch law that effectively eradicates all age limits for euthanasia – meaning children can be medically, and legally, executed. Presently, euthanasia in The Netherlands is legal starting at age 12. You would expect that American experts would be appalled by this law, but that’s not the case. U.S. Ethics Professor Margaret P. Battin actively supported it, and essentially advocated for the 2004 infant euthanasia policy called the “Groningen Protocol.”

The Protocol contains directives with criteria under which physicians can perform “active ending of life on infants” without fear of prosecution.

“I generally support [the] change in Dutch law governing eligibility for euthanasia. Given that euthanasia is currently legal for infants <1 year of age and children and adults >12 years of age, I believe that opponents would have to show evidence that at least 1 and perhaps many of the following propositions are true if they are to persuade you [a hypothetical Dutch health minister] not to support the change in the law,” Prof. Battin said in a roundtable discussion on the issue in the Pediatrics journal.

Battin then listed a few shocking propositions that must be proved wrong, one of which being, “parents aren’t harmed by seeing their children suffer.” So, if a parent feels that they are suffering from the sight of their child going through pain, it is OK to “put them down.”

Euthanasia is illegal in most of the United States, with exceptions made in California, Colorado, Oregon, Vermont, Hawaii and Washington.

Christian Filmmakers Told to Make Same-Sex Marriage Films or Spend 90 Days in Jail

Telescope Media Group owners Carl and Angel Larsen have already been threatened with hefty fines and up to 90 days in jail if they choose to disregard the law.

The couple is being represented by the Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF).

The Larsens want to enter the wedding industry. However, the state's Human Rights Act stipulates if the couple creates films celebrating their Christian beliefs about marriage—that marriage is between one man and one woman, they must also create films about marriage that violate their beliefs, including films promoting same-sex marriages.

"The government shouldn't threaten filmmakers with fines and jail time to force them to create films that violate their beliefs," said ADF Senior Counsel Jeremy Tedesco in a press release.

"Carl and Angel are storytellers—they script, stage, conduct interviews, capture footage, select music, edit and more—all to tell compelling stories through film that promote their religious beliefs."

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled 7-2 in Masterpiece that the government must respect the belief—held by countless Americans from all walks of life—that marriage is between one man and one woman," he continued. "The 8th Circuit should reinstate the Larsens' lawsuit and order the state to stop forcing the Larsens to speak messages about marriage that violate their beliefs." In 2017, the Larsens tried to challenge the law as unconstitutional but a lower court dismissed their case and mandated that they service same-sex weddings or close this part of their business. They are now appealing to the 8th Circuit Court. According to the ADF, Minnesota officials have repeatedly stated that private businesses such as the Larsens' violate the law if they decline to create films promoting same-sex weddings. Penalties for violation include payment of a civil penalty to the state; triple compensatory damages; punitive damages of up to $25,000; a criminal penalty of up to $1,000; and even up to 90 days in jail.

Thank the Lord because He made a decree concerning the moon that shall not pass away. Thus, nature is held in balance because of these ordinances that are everlasting. The moon continues to mark seasons.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 01

- Praise God for bringing us to the first day of the eleventh Gregorian month.

- When you think of the goodness of God to you, your family, your relations, your colleagues, your neighbors and friends you cannot but praise the Lord. He is awesome!
- Count your blessings, name them one by one. You will certainly be surprised at what the Lord has done for you.
- Praise Him. He is worthy of our praise.
- I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high (Psalm 7:17).

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 02

- The All Saints and All Souls Day is celebrated in honor of the dead on 1st and 2nd November. By this, the mysteries of the grave involving familiar spirits are activated – a platform for the devil to pollute, defile, manipulate and oppress people.
- These are the days that the Lord has made. Command the days opening this month belong to the Lord. Command these days to reject every speaking from the kingdom of darkness and they should only do that which God has ordained for them for you, your family and the body of Christ. (Psalm 19:2)

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 03

- Events like The All Saints and All Souls Day open up the land to defilement by familiar spirits so people are likely to experience visitations of long dead relations and loved ones which manipulates their minds, or inform their decisions on issues.
- The spirits also defile or oppress them. It is appointed for people to die once and are not allowed to return in any way, shape or form. Close every gate the enemy may use to defile you, your loved ones, or the church through familiar spirit. (Gen 3:19, Heb 9:27)
- Pray that the Lord will keep His protective hand over you, your family, church as the spirit of death passes over the land (Exo 12:12-13).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 04

- This is the month that the Lord has made. Enter its gates with thanksgiving and praise.
- Open it up with worship and proclamation of God's Lordship over the universe far above any spiritual beings that are actively trying to get their will done. (Psalm 8; 19:1-6; 24; 145; 148; 149).
- Instruct this month of November to submit to God and ask God to use every moment of the month to His own glory alone. (James 4:7a).
- Pray for the opening of the blessings for this season for you and your loved ones.
- Utter the voice of the blood of Jesus into the heavens. Pray that the voice of the Lord will blot out every other voice that is commanding the heavens to do anything in this season. Colossian 2:14-15.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 05

- Praise the Lord for this new month.
- For you to enter into this new season, there must be closure of the past season.
- Ask the Lord to close the gates of the past year and season.
- Ask that He will seal and cause a closure on any areas of your life where there is exposure and a lack of closure.
- Pray for the opening of the blessings for this season for you and your loved ones.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 06

- There are many nations going into elections soon. Pray for evil in governments and in the world to be revealed so that it can no longer be masked.
- Pray that the believers will rise above their place of fear and hiding and will step into their place of increased intercession for their nations.
- Pray that the children of God will remember who they are and will take authority in the realm around them.
- Pray that what Jehovah have worked in His children will cause them to rise up in the fullness of who they are and who He has made them to be.

Today @ 4:02p.m, is the new moon

- Praise God for this new moon that ushers in a new month. Enter the gates of this new month with thanksgiving for all that the Lord has allowed you to experience.
- Declare the peace of God at every gate of this new season. Pray that the gates of this season will be the gates of righteousness and praise and the walls salvation.
- Ask that wherever the man of peace shall be, the peace of the Lord will rest upon them. Wherever there shall be a man of violence, they shall be judged in this season. Psalm 118:12; Isa 60:18-20.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 08

- This is the end time season - a time of power encounter where the enemy has become more and more daring because godliness has ceased and faithfulness is disappearing from among men. (Ps 12:1).
- For the church, this time of a lull is a withdrawal period, a hibernation period for acquisition and storage of the weapons of war and spiritual military training in readiness for the coming combat. Take periods of time to get away and be at the feet of the Lord.
- Pray that God will make a way for you, your family, and the church in the nation to retreat and be strengthened by God through feeding on satisfactory volumes of God's word, feed on His love through seasons of song ministrations, being in good fellowships, and listening to wholesome truths (Isa 40:11, 41:10; Heb. 4:12, Psalm 23:1-3).

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 09

- This season of fall coming into winter is a time of minimal productivity. Business can slow down, finances may be low for many, relationships may be running cold or sour, and there are few positive things happening in your life, your family, the church and nation.

- Ask that God will cause you to be an encourager-one who will lift up, build up and bring joy in this season to all. Pray this for the church and nation (Isa 50:4, Pro 25:11, Col 4:6, 1Pet 3:15)
- Ask the Lord to open your ears this month so you can hear what He is saying, His purpose and plan for each moment.
- Pray that you will also have the grace to humbly obey each time you hear His voice. (Isa 50:5, Isa 30:21, Prov 18:15, Mic 6:6-8).

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

- Pray that during this season, there will be a fullness of time phenomenon in areas of life where you know the Lord has already released answers to prayer and you had not seen the manifestation because of demonic hindrance and human interference.
- Pray that every hindrance of the enemy will be dismantled by angelic assistance Isa 63:8-9, Acts 7.30, Exod. 23.20
- Pray that you will not be involved in any activity which would delay the fullness of time from occurring in your life, areas where you may have missed the timing of the Lord by sin, or because of the works of the enemy against you.
- Pray that there shall be a recovering of lost time Joel 2.24-25 Dan 10:12-14

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

- The number eleven represents the eleventh hour: that final moment of lull before an event of important proportions occurs – (Math 20:6, 9).
- It also represents disorder, disorganization, imperfection, and disintegration. 2 Kings 23:36; 2 Ch 36:5, 6
- Read Isa 33:22 and bring any area of justice e.g. court cases, family feuds, village disputes, and land or business disputes before the Lord. Remind yourself that beyond the human justice structures whether councils of elders, judges or tribunals, He remains our Judge, our Lawgiver and our King and Isaiah reminds you that He will save you.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12

- This is a season that creation prepares for hibernation in the northern hemisphere. It's a time to retreat, meditate, plan and dream into the days to come.
- You spend an average of 1/3 of your life to sleep. If the Lord has given you so much time to sleep then, He has a plan beyond resting the body for that time. Present your sleeping hours before the Lord and welcome Him into that time. Job 33:14-17
- When your mind is not active, then your spirit man is more alive and alert to spiritual things. Thus, the Lord often communicates with us in those sleeping hours as mentioned in Job 33:14-17. Pray for God-given dreams and visions concerning your purpose and redemptive destiny. Ask for the revelation of His plan for your life, family and work.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

- There have been activities in the nations which began a season of widespread judgement. It resulted in generalised disorder, disorganization, imperfection, and disintegration in especially in the economic gate of society.
- After this, the Lord will reshuffle, reorganize, restructure, rearrange, and reorder those gates to create an environment for them to align with His purposes, which have been planned for this particular season and will favor kingdom citizens economically Jer 29:11, Eccl 2.26.

- Pray that in this season of judgement you will be a sharpened arrow with which the Lord can shoot forth and will land on target Psalm 127:3-5.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

- There remain a few days before the end of the Gregorian year 2018. Instead of waiting for the end of the year to review your progress, take a time of retreat this month to do so and see where you have accomplished purpose or deviated from it.
- Examine your resolutions through the year and ask the Holy Spirit to help you see and recover any lost grounds within the remaining days of this year.
- Ask the Lord to help His Body - the church worldwide to use this month as a season of ceasing from much activity and reflection on where we are, and where we ought to be. He alone can show you the true state of affairs and guide you into correcting what must be corrected and eliminating what must be eliminated, until everything lines up with His purposes for the coming year.
- Pray that as we see the reality of where we are in God's time-table, we will also ask for the grace to accomplish as much of His purpose as He will allow during the remaining days of the year (1 Sam 30:8 , Ps 26:2)

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24

- At every new door of opportunity there are wicked enemies that will resist your entrance. They may attempt to wrestle the keys of access from you. Not long after he received revelation and release into authority,
- Peter was used by the enemy to try and stop the Lord's fulfilment of the very destiny that would establish the Church. The enemy does not use someone or an outside occurrence to wrestle your entry into a new season; he will use you first to stop your own entry by either missing the door or losing the revelatory keys of access.
- Pray that neither you or any other person or demon shall hinder your entrance into the new season and new gates.
- Pray that the Lord will send His angel to guard your mouth, so you will not speak your way out of your blessed season (Psalm 141:3).

- The land records every instance of wickedness that is done on it.
- It records the voice-print of every blood shed on it. Thus, the land refuses to release its strength to those who are counted as violators.
- Many parts of Africa and other nations, reject and vomit out its people because of the unresolved wickedness.
- This is the season to seek the Holy Spirit and perform a prophetic action on your land; whether it is a place you rented, the place you own or occupy in whichever way. - You are a royal priest before the Lord. If you are hesitant to take your role as a judge with the Lord over affairs of nations in this season, pray through Psalm 149:6-9.
- It is your glory as a king to inflict judgement on kings and territories. It is also your glory as a king to unravel what the Lord has not made plainly visible in every matter that seems mysterious and incomprehensible to the average person with regard to the territory and His plan and purposes. Faithful

©2018 by David W. Daniels

At age 30 He told His people about God's kingdom.

"Behold, a sower went forth to sow;"*

*Matthew 13:3

Jesus taught, healed their sick, cast out devils and raised the dead.

They loved Him for all of this. But soon they turned on Him.

One day Jesus fed 5,000 men (plus women and children) with just 5 loaves and two fishes.

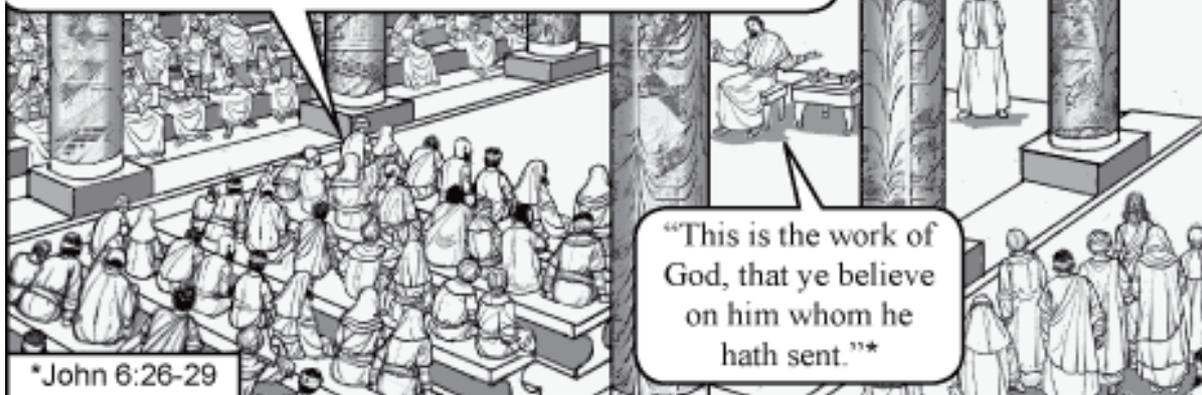

Mark 6:32-44

They were ready to make Him king, but He left in the night. The next day they found Him in the Capernaum synagogue. (This story is found in John 6.)

They wanted more free food! But Jesus saw through their scheme. He told them to labour (work) for the food that "endureth unto everlasting life."

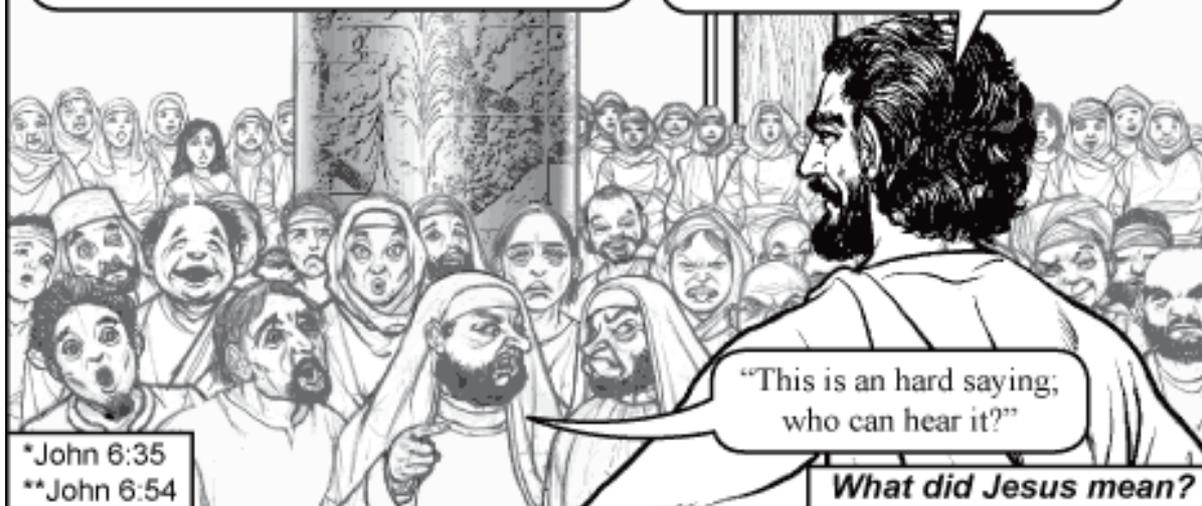

"What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?"

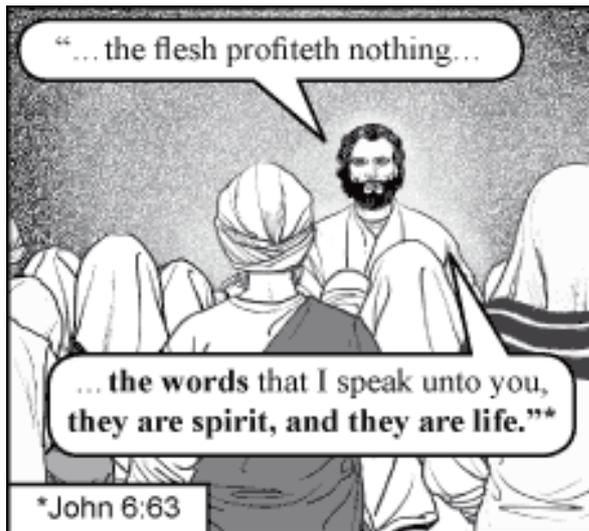

The "work" that God wanted was for them to believe on Jesus! Then He revealed who His true followers were, when He said these mysterious words...

"I am the bread of life." "Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood..."

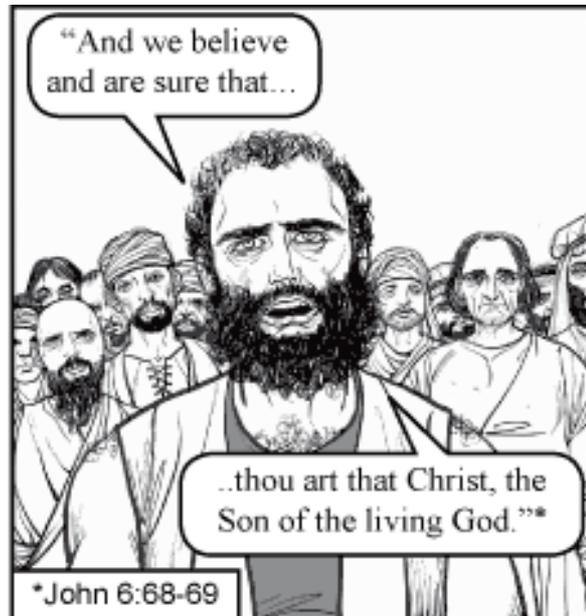

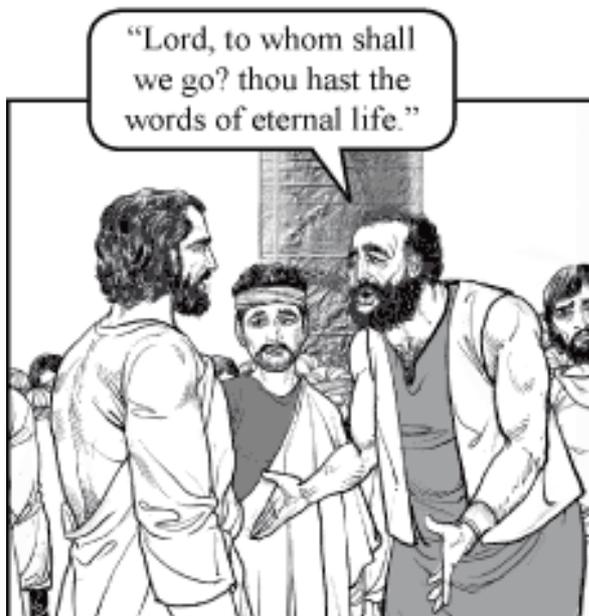

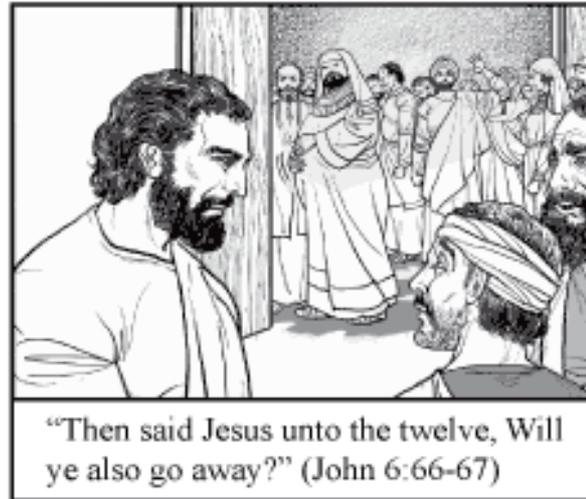

... hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Jesus spoke spiritually! This was about faith—not food!

No more free food? Jesus is the bread? That was it? Many fake followers left Jesus.

Jesus was referring to Judas. Satan himself would use him for the lowest crime imaginable.

Judas betrayed Jesus to the chief priests...

Some* unleashed their hatred on Jesus.

...for 30 pieces of silver. He sold his Master for the price of a servant.*

*See Matthew 26:15; Exodus 21:32.

He was beaten, whipped, and finally condemned to die on a cross.

*Even servants! See Mark 14:65

But Jesus is God's Son! The Lord Jesus could have commanded His holy angels to kill them all and deliver Him from their hands.*

*See Matthew 26:53.

Why didn't He?

In some religions, it is "faithful" to take revenge. But Jesus was faithful to His Father by doing the hardest thing of all:

"Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."
(Luke 23:34)

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Jesus forgave them! Then He took the punishment for all our sins upon Himself! That's why the Bible says, "with his stripes we are healed." (Isaiah 53:5; 1 Peter 2:24)

The hardest thing to do is forgive someone who abuses us.

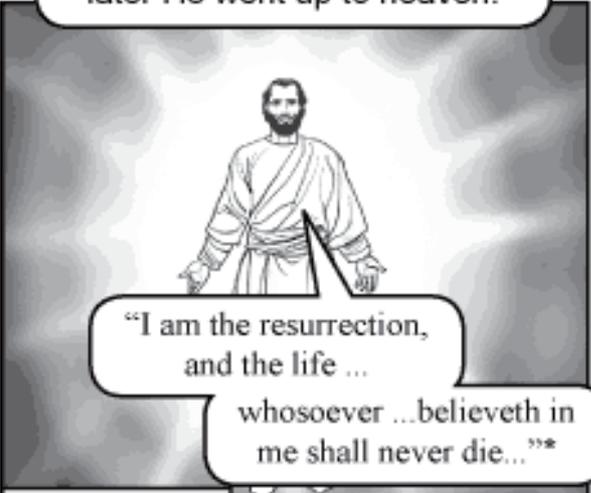

And yet that is what Jesus did, as an example for us.

He paid the ultimate price. He died and was buried in a tomb.

But three days later...

Jesus rose from the dead and later He went up to heaven.

“I am the resurrection, and the life ... whosoever ...believeth in me shall never die...”*

*John 11:25-26

Jesus never sinned.* But for the rest of us, “... all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;”

*Romans 3:23

"... Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps." (1 Peter 2:21)

"...Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." Acts 16:31

Do you admit that you are a sinner? YES NO

Do you believe Jesus died to pay for your sins? YES NO

Did you ask Him to forgive you and come into your heart? YES NO
